Same Old Story

The Republicans aided by a few Republicans and the boys from Wall Street are up to their same old tricks.

Proposing a reduction of more than four billion dollars in income taxes, the committee suggests reducing the little fellow's tax schedule from 19 to 15 percent and dropping the big fellow's by about thirty percent.

Tax relief is welcomed any old time, but this is hardly the time to start whacking away at the basic structure of our economy.

Eliminate waste and graft, yes, but Mr. Republican don't take any action that will shift the burden of taxation from the shoulders of those most able to pay to those least able to pay.

These Things Come Not Back

By Ruth Taylor

There is an old proverb taken from the Persian — "Four things come not back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity."

"The spoken word." It is not the fine things we have said that come back to us. What haunts us is the careless word, the critical speech, the unconscious cruelty.

"The sped arrow." This is the barb of unkindness that went straight to the heart of our neighbor, the wise-crack that stung, the indifference to our brother's needs, the cold withdrawal from the common life.

sharp trick, the self-interest we displayed, the spurning of the outstretched hand are among the things that torment us.

"The past life." Not only do we recall those things we did individually but our national mistakes, for which we, as citizens, are responsible. We neglected the developing of brotherly relations between Americans of good-faith.

"The neglected opportunity." Here again we suffer from both our individual and national errors—the friendships we did not make, the help to the downtrodden we did not give, the responsibilities we shirked.

We boast that the United States has the ideal living plan for all. If we mean what we say, then we must begin immediately to put an end to the hatreds that have been permitted to creep in.

We have our opportunity now to correct old mistakes—but we must remember the four things that come not back: Let the words we speak be words of fairness and friendship.

Bargain, Not Bludgeon

News and Observer

The wisest friends of labor—Wilson and Roosevelt—fought to insure collective bargaining in industry. That was a rebuke to employers who demanded of labor "take it or leave it," when they fixed a wage; and to labor organizations which now say "Here's our scale like it or we will strike."

Collective bargaining and arbitration alone will secure justice and insure good relations.

The above principle applies to the situation in the textile industry in North Carolina and other Southern States which face the threat of a strike unless wage increases recently granted in Northern mills are matched.

There should be bargaining, and, if necessary, arbitration before the strike and not afterwards. Negotiations should be begun immediately and should be conducted in an atmosphere of reason and earnest effort to meet common ground.

Cred For Living

Humanity is no empty word. Do not be taken in by the claptraps of this troubled epoch by the runners-muck, by the St. Vitus dancers and the howling dervishes of whatsoever creed they may uphold.

A statement issued a few days ago by Senator Wagner says that a nation-wide survey will be made of the city slums to discover how many of them can be transformed by new homes for low-income families.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature's cough and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back.
