SHERIDAN PEELE

In a ceremony characterized by simplicity, the wedding of Miss Mary Trulah Peele and Dr. Robert John Sheridan was solemnized by the Rev. Stewart B. Simms at 5:30 o'clock in the Memorial Baptist Church here on March 5.

Miss Joan Peele attended her sister as maid of honor. She was lovely in a gown of aqua taffeta, fashioned with low round neckline outlined with a double bertha of the same material, wide hoop skirt, and matching mits. She carried an arm bouquet of mixed spring flowers, and wore a small braided hat of matching taffeta.

The bridesmaids, Miss Doris Proffitt, of Roanoke, Va., and Miss Sally Prevatt, of Wilmington, wore identical dresses, and carried mixed spring flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Gilbert Peele, of Greenville, North Carolina, was beautifully gowned in ivory slipper satin, fashioned with a deep V-neckline long-fitted bodice, and inverted pleats in the skirt which featured a court train. Her veil of illusion and heirloom rosepoint lace fell from a coronet of matching lace. She carried a white prayer book with roses showered with stephnotes and white satin ribbons.

The groom was attended by his brother, William J. Sheridan, Jr., of Baltimore, and groomsmen were E. H. Manning and Luther Peele, cousins of the bride, Joseph H. Peel, uncle of the bride, and J. D. Woolard, Jr.

Little Miss Patricia Faye Peele, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and she wore a white taffeta dress with a white halo. Mrs. Wheeler Martin, Sr., organist, rendered the following program: "Melody of Love," "My Heart At Thy Sweet Voice," "Wedding Prelude," "Wedding Intermezzo," "At Dawning," "O, Thou Sublime Sweet Evening Star," "Because," "Love Dream," "Ave Maria," and "To A Wild Rose." Mrs. Martin played the Wedding March as a processional and the recessional. Miss Ida Privette sang, "I Love You," "Love's Coronation," and "O, Perfect Love."

Mrs. John R. Peele, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of perishable blue with matching lace. She wore a corsage of American Beauty roses. Mrs. William J. Sheridan, Sr., mother of the groom, was gowned in powder blue with black accessories, and she wore a corsage of Bettertimes roses. Mrs. William J. Sheridan, Jr., sister-in-law of the bridegroom, wore a dress of turquoise with black accessories.

Following the ceremony, the wedding party received friends in the vestibule of the church. Mrs. Sheridan attended Meredith College in Raleigh, and was graduated with the Class of 1948 from the Duke University School of Nursing. Dr. Sheridan attended Duke University Medical School, graduating with the class of 1948. Since his graduation, he has served on the staff of Orange Memorial Hospital, Orange, New Jersey. After a wedding trip, the couple will reside in East Orange, while Dr. Sheridan continues his internship.
