Homemakers Hold Rally In County

Last Saturday, the Future Homemakers of America held a county rally in the Jamesville auditorium. There were approximately 150 people at the meeting.

The F. H. A. girls, advisers and chapter mothers were asked to register upon arrival. At ten o'clock the meeting was called to order by the county president, Billy Brewer, president of the Jamesville F. H. A., welcomed the guests and devotional was led by the Williamston chapter.

A talent show, with participants from each club, was enjoyed by everyone. Caroline Wallace and Bobby Lilley, of Jamesville, won first places. Rev. Paul Nickens, pastor of the Plymouth Baptist Church, was guest speaker.

A picnic lunch was served in the luncheon and group singing was enjoyed while arrangements were made for showing a movie, "A Million Azaleas". Superintendent J. C. Manning then addressed the group.

The award for best name badge went to the Farm Life chapter. The attendance award was won by Jamesville with thirty-four members present. Farm Life asked for the county rally in 1949-50. Farewell was said by Robersonville.

County officers are: Jean Bowen, Bear Grass, president; Louise Corey, Williamston, vice president; Earline Coltrain, Farm Life, secretary; Dorothy Harrell, Oak City, treasurer; Anne Barnes, Robersonville, song leader; Mary Alice Griffin, Jamesville, reporter.

Williamston Boy Now At Camp Carson In Colorado

Ret. Joseph D. Hardison, U. S. Army, son of Kelly B. Hardison of Williamston, has just been assigned for duty at Camp Carson, Colorado, with the 14th Regimental Combat Team.

Ret. Hardison entered military service November 29, 1942, and received his basic training at Fort Benning, Ga. He is now being trained as soon as possible. All friends of the church who can spare a little time Thursday are being asked to report at the church and do what they can to help clean up.

Jackson, S. C., with the 5th Division.

He will participate in the mountain warfare and ski training which is now going on at Camp Carson. This training has qualified the men of Camp Carson together with their Weasels to be of great service in the Operation Snow Bound, in feeding and aiding Civilians marooned in many of the North Western plains area.

Campbell: I had a terrible dream last night. I dreamed I was dead and what do you suppose woke me up?
Lyman: The heat, no doubt.
