

Congratulating a girl who had just swum the Channel, a Frenchman said: "Mlle Smith, eet was a great foot you have done." "A great feat, Monsieur," she corrected him. "Ah, then you have swum the Channel two times, Mademoiselle!"—Tit-Bits.

News As Reported In The Enterprise Forty Years Ago

Joe Eddie Harper, of Parmele, was in Robersonville Tuesday. Miss Louise Rives, of Robersonville, is visiting relatives in Williamston. J. C. Andrews and son, Jasper, of Robersonville, went to Norfolk Thursday. Mrs. Henry Norman, of Robersonville, is spending some time in Roanoke Rapids. Mrs. R. J. Nelson, and little son, Robert, of Robersonville, spent Monday in Bethel. Linwood Moore, of Everetts, spent a few days last week visiting relatives in Robersonville. Mrs. D. R. Chandler and son,

Wilmer, of Robersonville, are visiting relatives in Robersonville this week. Little Miss Margaret Roberson, of Robersonville, spent several days last week in the country with her grandmother. The program rendered on Friday, November 19, by the Carolina Literary Society, was as follows: The origin of Thanksgiving—Allie Hilday; The First Thanksgiving—Katie Philpot; Life in Holland—Josie Robertson; A Thanksgiving Play—Fannie Manning, Frances Knight, Corinne Smith, Eva Peel, Hilda Crawford, Leroy Anderson and Yates Dowell. The town should find some use for the electric light poles if there is no probability of putting them up. The friends of Miss Anna Pope regret that she is confined to her room. Hopes are entertained that she will soon be out again. Several families here are preparing to move to Roanoke Rapids, among which are those of A. J. Adams and Harmon Williams. Mr. Adams has been established in the market business in his new home for some time. Master William Ellison was "at home" to a small number of little friends on Tuesday, it being the ninth anniversary of his birth. The hour was spent in play and eating the good things which always delight the children. At the annual election of officers

Jamesville Wins Goober Belt Tilt

Jamesville's All-Star team won its opening game of the season in Goober Belt play last Monday night when it defeated Hobgood's Goober Belt team 43 to 27. In the game, the Jamesville team was ahead 10 to 0 at the end of the first quarter and led at half time 23 to 9. Hobgood's attack was paced by F. Scott with 14 points while Ben Scott turned from baseball to basketball and pitched in with 10 points. Always at or near the top in play since the league was organized several years ago, the Jamesville entry shows promise of developing as a strong contender again this season. Monday night the Jamesville team will play Lewiston in Jamesville and on Wednesday night will go to Plymouth for a game with the Plymouth town team. Officers of the Woman's Auxiliary, held on Thursday, the 18th, Miss Hattie Thrower was re-elected president. Mrs. F. U. Barnes was elected vice-president, Mrs. K. B. Crawford secretary and Mrs. James G. Staton was re-elected treasurer. The members of the banquet committee of the Alumni Association of the University of North Carolina wish to thank publicly Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Keith for the excellent menu which they served on Thursday night, the 18th, at the banquet given by the Association; signed, S. Justus Everett, J. Paul Simpson, Harry A. Biggs, Committee. Mrs. W. T. Less to the rats— More to help feed the Nation with CONCRETE FARM BUILDINGS

With need for every pound of food produced, the nation cannot afford the loss of millions of dollars in feed, chicks and eggs destroyed each year by rats. Rats can be controlled—with the aid of concrete. Ratproof and sanitary, firesafe and thrifty... concrete is particularly well suited for granaries, poultry and hog houses, barn and feeding floors, milk houses and cooling tanks, manure pits and other structures needed for increased food production. There is no shortage of concrete materials for farm construction, repairs and improvements. Concrete farm buildings are moderate in first cost. They offer sanitation, firesafety and lifetime service at low annual cost. If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or your building material dealer. Thanksgiving THEN...and NOW BUILDING a new country were men and women willing to turn their backs on a safe life, and their faces toward new frontiers. They marked a day of thankfulness that it was their privilege to build a future limited only by individual ability and initiative, their right to share in the rewards of effort and investment. Free enterprise is another way of saying it. Free enterprise is the basic American principle which encourages research, invention, and progress. There are still new frontiers in electric living to be opened. Today we can be thankful that America's tax-paying, business-managed power companies such as VEPCO acknowledge those frontiers and face them with vision. It is a tribute to American self-reliance that self-supporting companies supply over 4/5 of the enormous amount of electric power this country depends on... at the lowest possible cost.
