Boy Scouts Report Their Activities

Scout Leader

On Tuesday, Nov. 21, 1949, at 5:40 p. m. a few of us witnessed an accident and later following death of a great scout who was loved by everyone who knew him.

After serving in the Marines of World War II Little Bear came to Williamston and entered High School to finish his education which he did not get before he entered the service.

The scout meeting of Troop 27 was opened Tuesday night with the Scout Oath and Law led by Herbert Ward.

Each patrol had a few minutes to discuss their business. Dues were collected by the patrol leaders and were marked in the register by Henry Taylor.

Romeo Michaud, Mr. F. Thomas and Billy Strickland were visitors at the meeting. There were 23 scouts present with 14 in uniform.

Mr. Ray taught the boys the Scout alphabet and the boys are expected to know it perfectly by next Tuesday night.

The troop also played a game called "Kelly's Hands." The game was led by Mr. Ray the first time and by Romeo Michaud, brother of the late Jeffrey Michaud, "Little Bear," the second time.

U.N. Assembly Elects New Officers

These are the seven key men in the debates of the United Nations General Assembly now holding its Fourth Regular Session at U.N. Headquarters. Standing behind Assembly President Gen. Carlos P. Romulo (Philippines) are the chairmen of the main committees in which most of the Assembly's work is done.

During his two years as a Scout Leader he had done so much for the scouts that they ranked first in anything that they had in competition.

We cannot afford to publish all the things that "Little Bear," has done for the scouts, but we, the scouts, will say that we have suffered a great loss in a scout master and a dear friend to all of us, when he, so unexpectedly left us.

which was inspired by the painter's descriptions of the fashionable and comfortable drawing room of his friend and patron. Gainsborough was particularly impressed by a pair of graceful high backed barrel chairs—which he always referred to as the "Portrait Chairs."

Thomas Gainsborough (1727-1788) painted the immortal "Blue Boy" and other well-known portraits. This is the first time that a manufacturer of fine furniture and a dealer have so closely allied fine art masterpieces with definite furniture styling.
