

Oak City Club Woman Honored

The Oak City Home Demonstration Club held its regular meeting Tuesday, April 25, in the Home Economics Room with a very good attendance. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. J. D. Suits, club president. After committee reports and business a very interesting program and demonstration were given. Miss Parker gave a demonstration on the use of plastic in making lamp shades. Mrs. Liverman, club project leader for Home Gardens gave a very interesting report. Our next project report was on Home Management and was by Mrs. Z. H. Hyman. We considered this a very unusual report. Mrs. Hyman, better known as "Miss Minnie" should know quite a bit on managing a home. "Miss Minnie" has reared seventeen children. She mothered four brothers and sisters after the death of her mother. She is the mother of ten children, and then reared three grandchildren. "Many and many a time have I cooked three meals a day for thirteen people," said "Miss Minnie." She believes that work and responsibility are good for children.

"Miss Minnie" not only owns a home and keeps it, but is the owner and manager of a store. Each day finds her at her work. "Miss Minnie" is a member of the Baptist Church where she attends services and Sunday school regularly. She also attends the club meetings regularly. With all her duties she finds time to crochet and sew.

The club not only voted her the Woman of the Club but The Woman of the County.—Reported.

Test for Selecting Candidates

in the 1950 Democratic Primary it might be well that the people of Martin County follow the test set out in the May 1950 issue of the Progressive Farmer Magazine:

For some of the problems and issues, we suggest that all men and women think about our 1950 primaries and elections. And, of course, after deciding what policies we wish to support, one other problems confronts us:

How Can We Best Select Candidates Who Will Help In Law Enforcement

and "Protect the Welfare of Our People" and "Better County Government"? About those questions, we offer suggestions in editorial below:

A SCORECARD FOR 1950 CANDIDATES

In these days we have scoreboards for all sorts of things from babies to bulls. In election years we always like to present our County Scoreboards for Candidates. It is very brief and simple, as follows:

Character .....	33 1-3 Points
Platform .....	33 1-3 Points
Ability .....	33 1-3 Points
