

Report Series Of Road Wrecks In County Recently

(Continued from page one) Smith pulled to the right and plunged into the ditch investigating the accident. Patrolman M. F. Powers said no charges were preferred. He quoted Smith as saying that it was just one of those things and could not be helped, adding that he had been in a similar predicament once himself.

Traveling west between Williamston and Everetts on Highway 64 yesterday morning shortly after 7:00 o'clock, Mrs. H. L. Meador, driving a 1950 Plymouth, gave a signal for a left turn. Everett Buxton Baughman, Plymouth man, started to pass but saw the hand signal too late. He applied his brakes, but his 1950 Buick skidded into the rear of the Plymouth, doing about $200 damage

CARD OF THANKS We would like to take this opportunity to thank our many friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our recent bereavement. The many kind acts will long be remembered by us. We would also like to thank each and every one for the beautiful floral offering. May the Lord bless all of you. MRS. E. R. CHESSON AND CHILDREN.

Jaycee Officers Installed Friday

The hall was filled with Jaycees wife and dates, the presidents of the other local civic clubs and their wives and out of town guests from Plymouth, Washington, Wilson, Rocky Mount and Wilmington.

The meeting was officially opened with the entire group reciting the Jaycee Creed and singing God Bless America. Jaycee Charles Manning pronounced the invocation.

After a delicious turkey dinner the meeting was turned over to Jaycee Wheeler Manning who acted as toastmaster for the evening. After a recognition of the guests by the toastmaster, Jaycee John Miller, in charge of the program for the evening, presented the entertainment which brought unceasing laughter. After demonstrating talent by the local Jaycee members, Miller introduced Snake Bones (Jimmy Page) and his Musical Nightmares (Joe Robertson, Raymond Robertson, Bobby Goff, Herbert Harrell and Don Reynolds), a minstrel band which kept the large crowd in stitches for the greater part of half an hour. At the close of this band concert prizes were presented to the ladies.

The meeting was returned to President Thad Harrison who introduced National Director Hal Love of Wilmington, who installed the new officers for the coming year. At this point District Vice-President John Hackney was recognized to install Edgar Gurganus, the incoming president, who presided over the remainder of the meeting. After transacting a small amount of business the new president adjourned the meeting, inviting all to attend the dance in the high school gym given in honor of the ladies. The officers installed are: President, Edgar Gurganus; 1st vice president, Bernard Harrison, 2nd vice president, E. S. Peel, Jr.; secretary, Elton Hardy; treasurer, Grady Luff-

Lion's Club Holds Regular Meeting

The annual meeting for the nomination of officers was held by the Lions Club last Thursday evening at the Woman's Club. An enjoyable dinner was served by the ladies of the No. 2 circle of the Methodist Church.

Following the dinner, Lion Secretary Billy Griffin read the minutes of the last meeting of the Board of Directors. The meeting was then turned over to Lion A. J. Manning, chairman of the nominating committee, who read the list of the past year's officers. There were some changes made, and the complete list will be published at a later date.

The club voted to sponsor a contest in the Beauty Contest to be held by the Jaycees at a later date. There were several guests for the evening including Francis Vaughn, J. M. Hopkins, Louis Morris and James Wallace. Lion Roy Ward presented Lion B. G. Stewart with the Fellowship Farm prices fall below parity for first time in eight years.

Indignant Little George came home in a sad state. He had a black eye, many scratches, and his clothes were a sight. His mother was horrified and, with tears in her eyes, said rebukingly: "Oh, George, George! How often have I told you not to play with that naughty Brown boy?" "Play!" answered little George, looking at his mother in deep disgust. "Do I look as if I've been playing with somebody?"
