

Goods, Valued At $800, Stolen From Four Stores There

(Continued from page one) Inside doors. They ransacked the contents there and left war on the floor. The raiders also ransacked office desk drawers and cabinets, but nothing was missed, the robbers overlooking a silver collar in full view. Mr. Ayers valued the stolen goods at between $500 and $600. The invaders ripped away a window sash to enter Johnny Mobbey's Esso Station where about eighty cartons of cigarettes were stolen along with various other items, all valued at between $100 and $125. About 3:00 o'clock, Mrs. John L. Wynne turned on a light to see how to get some ice for a sick person she was nursing in the Johnny Mobbey home. The robbers, working on the Taylor Brothers Filling Station door at the time, apparently became frightened, stopped their activities and drove away in the direction of Williamston.

Tried Thirty-One Cases Monday In Recorder's Court

Pleading guilty of bastardy, William Sheppard was sentenced to the roads for six months, the court suspending the road term upon the payment of the costs and on the further condition that he pays $3 a week for the support of his child.

Pleading guilty of larceny, Steve McCady was sentenced to the county home where he is to work for six months. Willie Parker, carrying a concealed weapon, was sentenced to the roads for four months. The road term was suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and the court costs.

A motion for a directed verdict of not guilty was allowed at the close of the State's evidence in the case in which Joseph Bullock was charged with violating the liquor laws.

Joe Outerbridge was fined $10 and taxed with the costs when he pleaded guilty of an assault with a deadly weapon.

Ernest Bellamy was fined $50 and taxed with the costs for violating the liquor laws. William James and Ralph Boston, pleading guilty of operating motor vehicles without drivers' license, were each fined $25 and taxed with the costs.

Charged with careless and reckless driving, Leo Warren was found guilty of driving on the wrong side of the road, and judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs.

Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs in the case in which Ralph Cleveland Evans of Greenville was charged with speeding.

Woodrow Taft, charged with operating a motor vehicle without a driver's license, was sentenced to the roads for sixty days. The road term was suspended upon the payment of a $25 fine and court costs.

When Robert Purvis, Jr., colored, said he did not know anything when called as a state's witness, explaining that he was not even sure about the identity of a defendant with whom he had been riding, the court issued a bench warrant, charging him with perjury. The cases is scheduled for trial next Monday. During the meantime, Purvis continues in jail, unable to raise the bond.

Judge Manning said something had to be done to stop lying in the court. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs in the cases in which Frederick H. McBride of Rochester, N. Y., and Vincent Reggiani of Flushing, N. Y., Laurens Johannes Platteel of Norfolk, Tommy E. Youmans of Dorchester, Ga., Arnold Estel Anthony of Markle, Indiana, and Theodore A. Hallman of Springfield, N. J., were charged with speeding.
