BRIDE-ELECT HONORED AT BRIDGE CLUB PARTY

Miss Edith Martin, bride-elect of May 31, was complimented last Saturday evening at dessert bridge and a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. H. M. Ayers and Mrs. H. S. Hardy at the former's home in Everetts.

Upon arrival, the honoree was presented a corsage of pink carnations by her hostesses and Miss Martha Whitehurst, bride-elect of July, received a white corsage.

Arrangements of carnations, snapdragons and sweet peas decorated the home, carrying out a green, white and pink color scheme. Burning tapers were used on each table and miniature umbrella favors marked each place setting. The hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Dennis Roberson and Mrs. Clarence Faulkner, served bridal ices, party cakes and mints.

Between the progressions soft drinks and nuts were served. Bridge prizes for high score, second high score and traveling were awarded Mrs. Buck Barnhill of Williamston, Miss Martha Whitehurst and Mrs. J. W. Bailey after play.

A number of shower gifts were presented the honoree in an opened pink and green umbrella. The hostesses presented Miss Martin with a gift of china.

Miss Whitehurst was remembered with a gift of crystal and Miss Edna Barnhill was remembered with a birthday gift.
