Mrs. Edith Martin Weds Mr. M. L. Tarkington In Everetts May 31st

REV. J. M. PERRY OFFICIATES AT RITES IN HOME OF BRIDE

The marriage of Mrs. Edith Martin, daughter of Mrs. J. S. Ayers, Sr., and the late J. S. Ayers, Sr., of Everetts, to Mr. M. L. Tarkington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tarkington of Windsor, was solemnized at the home of the bride Wednesday, May 31, at 4:00 o'clock. The Rev. J. M. Perry of Robersonville officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The vows were spoken before an arrangement of greenery, baskets of white gladioli and candelabras holding pink tapers. The aisle was marked with pink satin ribbon tied from single candelabra at the altar to baskets of white gladioli.

The program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. J. W. Peel of Everetts, pianist, and Mrs. Wheeler Manning and Miss Ida Privette of Williamston, vocalists. The ushers were Mr. H. M. Ayers of Everetts, brother of the bride, and Mr. Wallace Tarkington of Williamston, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride and bridegroom entered together. The bride wore a street length dress of imported blue lace with tight fitted bodice and full skirt. Her hat was pillbox of matching lace with net of matching color. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. Her gloves were blue lace and she carried a bridal bouquet of white sweetpeas, centered with pink roses and showered with pink satin ribbon and tube roses.

The mother of the bride wore a black street length dress and her corsage was American beauty roses.

For travel the bride wore a white tropical worsted dress and long fitted coat of the same material with brown and white accessories and the roses lifted from her bridal bouquet.

Following a wedding trip north the couple will make their home in Everetts.

Mrs. Tarkington is a teacher of music in Martin County Schools and Mr. Tarkington is engaged in farming in Bertie County.

Honored at Bridge
Honoring Mrs. Edith Martin, bride-elect, Mrs. J. W. Peel of Everetts entertained at a bridge party including her club and invited guests Friday night, May 26, at her home in Everetts, which was decorated for the occasion with mixed spring flowers.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of sweetpeas and Miss Martha Whitehurst, bride-elect of July, was presented a corsage of carnations.

After two progressions of play, the guests were served iced drinks and potato strips.

At the conclusion of play, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. H. M. Ayers and Mrs. Dillon Peel, served ice cream and party cakes-mints carrying out a color scheme of pink and white.

Mrs. Martin was presented crystal in her chosen pattern. Miss Whitehurst was presented a dish of milk glass.

High score for club was presented Mrs. A. P. Barnhill of Robersonville, guest high to Miss Martha Whitehurst of Williamston.

Low score to Mrs. Dillon Peel and traveling to Mrs. Walter Bailey.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. J. S. Ayers, Jr., and Mrs. Roland Bunting were joint hostesses honoring Mrs. Edith Martin, May bride-elect, with a miscellaneous shower at the home of

The home was beautifully decorated with mixed spring flowers. The honoree was presented upon arrival a corsage of roses.

After the guests assembled they were engaged in two contests. The winners were Mrs. Dennis Roberson of Robersonville and Mrs. Leroy Harrison of Bear Grass.

The hostesses presented Mrs. Martin with a trunk filled with gifts from guests and china in her chosen pattern was presented by the hostesses. Music was rendered at this time.

Mesdames Ayers and Bunting served ice cream, party cakes, mints and nuts, carrying out color scheme of green and white.

Around-30 guests were present.

Cake Cutting
Mrs. J. S. Ayers, Sr., and Mrs. H. M. Ayers entertained at a cake cutting following the rehearsal of the Martin-Tarkington wedding, including members of the bridal party and family and a few invited guests.

The table was covered with blue table cloth, centered with arrangements of pink carnations and fever few with miniature baskets filled with snapdragons and sweet peas. Each basket was tied with pink and white ribbon with streamer connected to center arrangement.

The three tiered bridal cake was placed at one end of the table and punch was served at the other end. Pink and white mints and nuts were also served.

After Mrs. Martin and Mr. Tarkington cut the first slice, Mrs. Dennis Roberson served the guests. Miss Edna Barnhill presided at the punch bowl. Misses Jane Martin and Judy Ayers assisted Mrs. H. M. Ayers in serving nuts and mints.

Mrs. J. S. Ayers, Sr., bade the guests good bye.
