Watch For Contemptible Tricks

Judging from the record regrettably written in the first campaign, Smith forces in the current United States senatorial race can be expected to stoop to all sorts of contemptible tricks.

In pulling such common and contemptible tricks, they hide the true facts.

They do not tell the bare truth, for that would knock the props from under their records showing that Frank P. Graham has opposed and still opposes the Federal government forcing non-segregation on states or regions.

It would appear that the Smith forces are resorting to contemptible, low-down, common sleight of hand tricks to form a curtain, behind which the corporations and the privileged may hide their unholy business.

Should Have Waited

It was beginning to look as if Willis Smith would wait until the November election to take a stand. If he had done that and got into the race for the United States Senate under a Republican banner with his physical being he would have been right where his heart and soul are and have been since he picked up the corporations' banner and joined the march against the masses, the working man, the poor man, the farmer, the little fellow.

It was suggested by men who knew Smith back yonder that he should enter the race as a republican. But, unfortunately, the Republicans steal into the Democratic Party ranks and parade under a banner foreign to their beliefs and actions.

While subsidies go out to the privileged groups, including the air lines, the railroads, the shipping interests, big manufacturers, and while public utilities are allowed stipulated profits and minimum wage scales are fixed, there is a concerted effort to knock the props from under agriculture.

Just recently, the Republicans with the aid of the Byrd-type Democrats, moved to cut back immediately price supports on basic farm crops. The move fell short of its mark by a vote of 50 to 18, but in that vote is a danger signal that must not be ignored.

The fact that two Democratic senators in an adjoining state lined up with the Republicans to stab the farmer in the back should be sufficient warning for the people to get together and hold the line.

The trend in the country today is noticeable. The Tafts, the Byrds and the Hoeyes are dead set against any plan designed to help the masses. At the same time they work for privileges for the privileged. It is admitted that Clyde Hoey of North Carolina has not voted directly against our farmers, but he has followed along with the economic royalists so consistently and willingly that when agriculture needs a friend one isn't to be found.

And now we are being asked to send Willis Smith to the Senate. If Smith is sent to the Senate, the farmers and workers will realize that they were sold out, for he is tarred with the corporation stick, and he has spoken with his own mouth that he believes like Hoey, that he'll vote like Hoey, that he'll jump when Hoey says jump. And, let there be no mistake about it, Mr. Hoey has voted more consistently with Republican Taft and Virginia's Byrd that he has with his own party.

North Carolina voters have a chance to hold the line on Saturday, June 24, by voting for Frank P. Graham for the United States Senate.

He'll Not Make It

The people of North Carolina don't want and will not let any one ride to political victory on the Four Horse men of Calumny—fear, ignorance, bigotry and smear.

Mr. Willis Smith, candidate for the United States Senate, stumbled badly on May 27, and, we sincerely believe, he'll be thrown clear from his infamous steed on June 24. He'll not make it to Washington on the animal he has chosen to ride.
