Make Speech Over Radio For Graham Wednesday Night

I. Their war service should not be an issue, but if Willis Smith was inducted into service July 29, 1918, and was out 11 days after Nov. 11, 1918. Frank Graham volunteered in the Marines July 1917 and served until July 1919. 4 months against 24 months. Short time service here in America against fighting in the trenches and on foreign fields.

Smith says that Frank Graham is a socialist or that his views and the Democratic trend is toward Socialism. They called Jefferson a Socialist. They called William Jennings Bryan a Socialist. They called Franklin D. Roosevelt a Socialist. Every man in modern history that has raised his voice in behalf of the common man has been called Socialist. Every liberal Democrat in my generation that has opened his mouth in behalf of the farmer, laborer or the small business man has been called Socialist. If socialism means 45 cent tobacco, decent wages, good roads, social security, and the kind of Democrat progress and security that we now have, give me that and Frank Graham and give Willis Smith back to the days before Franklin Roosevelt. Let Herbert Hoover and sound conservative government as defined by Judge Vasser have Willis Smith.

and Statesman as ever lived in any state.

On June 24th, we go forth again to do battle in the age old struggle for the rights of the little man, for Democracy, for progress, for the American way of life. Willis Smith, the corporation lawyer and lobbyist, the friend of the rich and the tool of wealth, is aligning his forces. On the other side Frank Graham, the servant of all the people, sounds his call. Voters of North Carolina, find your place on this battlefield. Shoulder your musket, but let it be a Democratic musket, fix your bayonet, but let it be a liberal bayonet. Strike your blow, but let it be a blow for freedom. Level your sights, but level them on the palaces of privilege. Shoot your shot, but let it be a shot heard around the world in behalf of the rights of the common man. Do this. Do this and you will vote for Frank Graham.
