Candlelight Ceremony Sunday Unites Miss Lessie Manning and Mr. Choplin

VOWS SPOKEN IN PINEY GROVE BAPTIST CHURCH

Miss Lessie Delene Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Edwin Manning of Williamston, Route 1, became the bride of Marlie Linard Choplin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Choplin of Youngsville, in a candlelight ceremony solemnized Sunday evening, June 25, at 7 o'clock in the Piney Grove Baptist Church. The Rev. W. B. Harrington, pastor of the bride officiated, using the double-ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Mary Dean Harrison, pianist, J. T. Griffin, soloist, sang "The Pledge", "Always", "Because", and "The Lord's Prayer".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal wedding gown of white satin, with flounces of sheer lace edging the berth-like collar. A fitted bodice pointed to a full skirt with diagonally designed ruffles of lace held out panier style and fell into a circular train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a satin Juliet cap embroidered with seeded pearls. She carried a white prayer book topped with a purple throated orchid and showered with white ribbons.

Miss Thelma Clyde Manning, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of orchid under a net stole. The gown had a frosted Swiss embroidered organdy bodice, and full skirt of white net veiled over taffetta. She wore a Dutch cap of white net, matching gloves and carried a nose gay of orchid carnations with matching ribbon.

Misses Susie Manning, Melba Manning, Frances Roberson, and Mrs. Milton James were bridesmaids. Their gowns of rainbow colors were fashioned after that of the maid of honor. They wore Dutch caps of white net, matching gloves and carried nose gays of carnations with matching ribbons to that of their gowns. Little Misses Sandra Manning and Clara Ruth Morris attended the bride as flower girls. They were dressed in blue and pink organdie and carried blue and pink baskets from which they strewed rose petals.

The honorary bridesmaids were Miss Janie Sue Griffin, Miss Bessie Manning, Miss Earline Coltrain, Miss Janice Harrison, and Miss Shirley Corey. Their dresses were of pastel shades.

Mrs. Bruce Peele, mistress of ceremony, wore a gown of lime green and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mrs. Manning, mother of the bride, was attired in a chiffon dress of floral design with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Choplin, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a navy blue and white crepe dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The bridegroom had as his best man, Barrett Mitchel of Youngsville. The ushers were S. E. Manning, Jr. brother of the bride; Joe Choplin, Lewis Choplin, and Elton Choplin, brothers of the bridegroom.

For traveling, the bride wore a white Palm Beach suit with linen accessories and the orchid from her prayer book.

The bride was graduated from the Farm Life High School and attended E. C. T. C. of Greenville and Louisburg College. For the past year she has been employed in Virginia Electric and Power Company in Williamston.

The bridegroom was graduated from Youngsville School and attended Louisburg College and Wake Forest College and at present is employed in the Burlington Textile Mills near Raleigh. The couple will be at home in Raleigh.
