Bear Grass Takes Jamesville For Second Time In A Row Yesterday

Robersonville's Rams and the Farm Life baseball boys continued Martin County League as they passed the fourth of July mark while Bear Grass got back on the victory trail with two decisions over Jamesville and Jack Sullivan pitched a neat four-hitter last night to put the Williamston Martins on the right road again.

City Rocsters, playing the number spectively ran into difficulty and the Bees found themselves in the next to last slot in a tie with the

LESSONS

Director Stuart Maynard of the Williamston Recreation program, announced yesterday that Bill McDonald of the Red Cross Safety department is holding three periods of practice teaching for those who recently completed the water safety course at the local pool. The first session was held yesterday afternoon for an hour, 5:30 to 6:30, and the second will be held this afternoon at the same hour with the public invited to come in and let the recent graduates demonstrate how well they have mastered their studies.

Mr. McDonald will have overall charge of the activity during which non-swimmers will be taught to swim and swimmers will be taught new strokes and methods of promating water safety.

The third and final hour of practice teaching will be held tomorrow, Friday, afternoon.
