RECEPTION AT WOMAN'S CLUB FOR BRIDAL PARTY

Immediately following the wedding of Miss Isabelle Anderson and Sgt. W. Brownie Harrington last Sunday evening, the bride's family entertained at a reception in the Williamston Woman's Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Peel, Sr. greeted the guests and introduced them to the receiving line which included Mrs. J. C. Anderson, mother of the bride, Mrs. W. E. Harrington and the Reverend W. B. Harrington, parents of the groom, the bride, the groom, the Reverend S. B. Simms, Mrs. Jack Riley, Miss Grace Ross, Miss Mary Dean Hardison and little Miss Judy Riley.

The club house was decorated with a black drop of ivy centered by a fan-shaped arrangement of gladioli and mammoth phlox flanked on either side with a small ivy covered trellis. White bridal flowers and tall candles in brass candelabra completed the decorations on the piano, the registering table and in the anterooms.

The bride's table was centered with a three tiered wedding cake which was topped with a maline heart encircling a miniature corsage of feverfew. The bridal white cake was decorated with tiny iced calla lilies and lilies of the valley and nestled in a nylon net frill on a silver tray. Minute satin streamers from under the cake were tipped with little white corsages. On either side of the cake was a three branched candelabrum and epergne filled with baby's breath and burning white tapers.

Lime sherbert punch was served by Mrs. H. B. Anderson, aunt of the bride, at one end of the table while Mrs. H. B. Daniels and Mrs. J. D. Thrower served individual bridal squares at the opposite end. Mesdames Betsy Harrell and Bruce Roebuck of Williamston, Mrs. Calvin Parker of Ahsokie, Misses Charlotte Robertson of Portsmouth, Dottie Anderson and Beverlet Anderson of Washington, N. C., Vivian Hudson of Williamston and Hazel Spell of Farmville and Wilson assisted in serving salted nuts and mints to the guests.

Mrs. Justice Coltrain, sister of the groom, presided over the bride's book and the goodbyes were said by Mrs. J. O. Bowen, of Washington, D. C., aunt of the bride.

HONORED AT PARTY

Miss Isabelle Anderson, who became the bride of Sgt. Walter Brownie Harrington last Sunday afternoon, was honored at a coca-cola party given by Mesdames H. L. Meador, David Modlin, Luther Peel, Jr. on Thursday, June 29 at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Meador on South Haughton Street.

The home was decorated throughout with gladioli and the dining room table, covered with an imported linen cutwork cloth, was centered with an arrangement of oxeid daisies and feverfew arranged in an antique cut glass compote.

The guests were greeted by Mrs. Modlin and Mrs. Peel, Jr. who presented them to Miss Anderson, the honoree, and Miss Frances Griffin, bride of July 5. Mrs. Peel, Sr. invited the guests into the dining room where Mrs. J. C. Anderson, mother of the honoree, Mrs. Conrad Getsinger and Miss Joann Peel served iced coca cola, party sandwiches, potato chips, salted nuts, hors d'oeuvres and assorted cookies to about seventy guests.

Mrs. Jack Riley, sister of the honoree, presided over the bride's book and Mrs. Meador said the goodbyes.

Miss Anderson and Miss Griffin were presented corsages of gar-

Dardens Club In Recent Meeting

The recently organized Dardens Home Demonstration Club met last Friday with Mrs. C. B. Fagan, club president. Other officers of the club are, Mrs. H. L. Riddick, vice president; Mrs. S. R. Coburn, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. C. Fagan, cheerio leader; Mrs. James Stalls, Mrs. Halczy Hardison, Mrs. Sam Coburn, Mrs. William Hopkins, Mrs. Herman Riddick, Mrs. Paul Allen, Mrs. Fagan and Mrs. Will Swinson, project leaders.

Attendance upon the first meeting following the organization of the club was limited on account of the rains. However, seven charter members were present and Mrs. Allen Griffin took membership at that time.

Prizes were awarded by the hostess, and a progress report was submitted, showing that 246 quarts of vegetables had been canned, ten chicken frozen, 41 new garments made and three dresses altered. Mrs. Hardison and Mrs. W. C. Fagan won the prizes, crocheted pieces.

The home agent, Miss Elizabeth Parker, gave a demonstration in salad making.

The hostess, assisted by her daughter, served a delicious salad, cookies and iced tea.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Paul Allen on August 11, and all women of the community are invited.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER

Prior to the Harrington-Anderson wedding rehearsal last Saturday evening, the bridal party, their husbands and wives and parents of the bridal couple were entertained at a dinner given by Mrs. J. O. Bowen of Washington, D. C., aunt of the bride, at the Hotel George Reynolds.

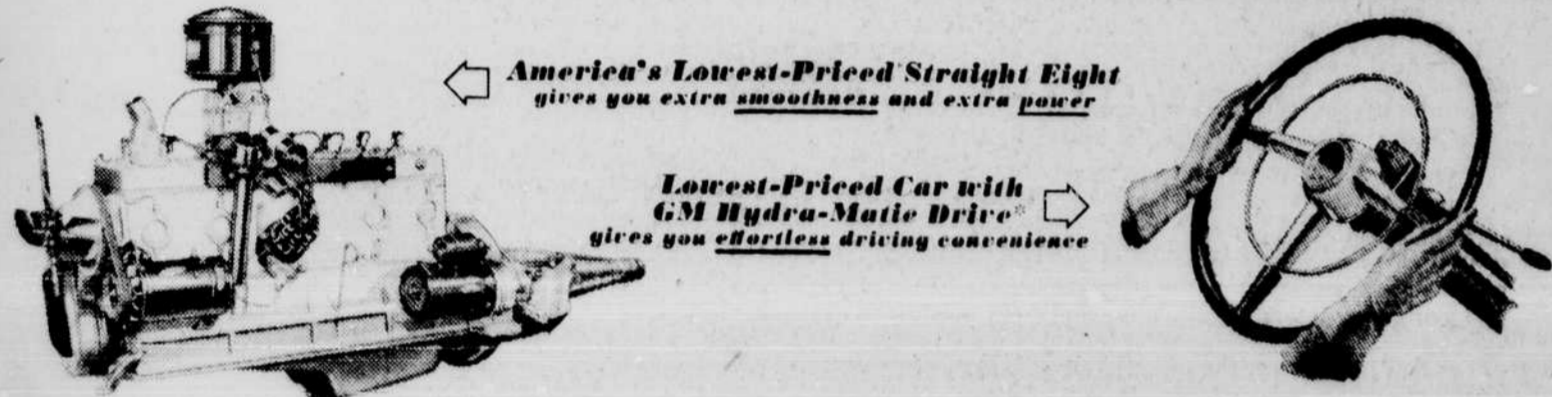

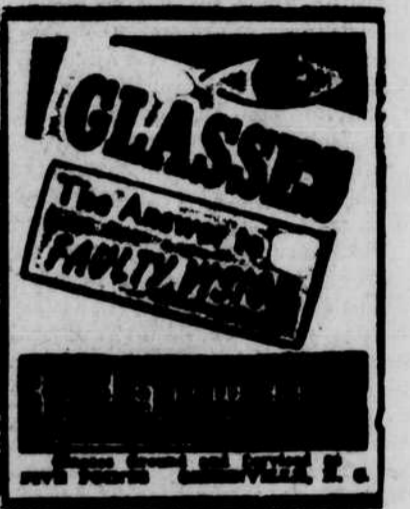

The dining room table held a large centerpiece of white gladioli and fern and white tapers in sprays of white gladioli and fern and white tapers in crystal candelabra were arranged alternately down the length of the table on either side of the central arrangement. Small white place cards with wedding bell design were used.

Following a two course dinner colorful ice cream molds in unique designs were served. For Miss Anderson there was a molded ice cream bride and for Sgt. there was an ice cream groom. The other guests were served ice cream molded as wedding bells, wedding rings, love birds, hearts, flowers, wedding cakes and slippers.

During the dinner, Miss Anderson presented gifts to her attendants, the organist, the soloist and to her mistress of ceremonies.
