Thousands Attend Church Meeting

New York.—From Angola and Venezuela, from Australia and the Fiji Islands, from the Bible lands, the Gold Coast, and behind the Iron Curtain, from Kenya, Pakistan, Thailand, and many other countries are coming 5,000 delegates to the World Convention on Christian Education at Toronto, Canada, this month.

Sunday school leaders, children's youth, and adult experts, ministers, and laymen from nearly 70 nations are attending the mid-century convention, sponsored by the World Council of Christian Education according to Dr. Forest L. Knapp, general secretary.

The theme is "Jesus Christ—Teacher and Lord."

Among the more than 200 speakers, leaders of worship and discussion groups, and others in responsibility are the following world-known Christian Educators: Lord Mackintosh of Halifax, of England; Dr. Luther A. Weigle, of the United States; Bishop Stephen C. Neill, of England, assistant to the Archbishop of Canterbury, and associate general secretary of the World Council of Churches; Dr. Charles Malik of Lebanon, head of the Lebanese delegation to the United Nations, and former president of the U. N. Economic and Social Council.

Beta Club Group Reports On Trip

On Friday July 28th, Dean Stallings, Jackie Mizelle, Venita Stallings, Mary Alice Griffin, Margaret Perry, Shirley Gaines, Pat Holliday, Bobby Lilley, Oliver Hamilton and Dorman Gaines, members of the Jamesville Beta Club with Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hairr, our advisor and his wife left on an interesting and educational trip. The place of interest being Williamsburg, Va.

After reaching our destination we were assigned our rooms at the William and Mary College.

Friday night we witnessed Paul Green's production of The Common Glory at the Waterside Theatre which was wonderful.

Saturday was our day of touring. We met our guide at the Recreation Center and many interesting things were learned and seen as we visited the Capitol Goal, Magazine and Guardhouse, Governor's Palace and Garden and the Bruton Parish Church. During the afternoon without the aid of our guide we visited the museum, Wig-Maker, Pewterer and Jamestown.

Sunday we left Williamsburg for Virginia Beach where we enjoyed the sun and water for the day.

A tired but happy dozen arrived home Sunday night feeling as if we had completed a course in history.—Pat Holliday, Reporter.

Boy Scouts Report Their Activities

There will be a meeting of the Cub Scouts and their parents Friday night at 7:30 at the Episcopal Parish House.

Scouts Ben Andrews and Hugh Lindsley will tell the Cubs of the highlights of the recent Boy Scout Jamboree held at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania.

Troop 27

Buddy Fussell opened the meeting by having James Pittman lead us in the Scout Oath and Law. Tommy Cooke led us in the Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Matthews talked to us about going camping and we have decided to go to the sound, if possible.

Jacob Zemon gave a report on his trip to Camp Charles. Tommy Cooke did the same.

Jacob Zemon closed the meeting by leading us in the Scoutmaster's benediction.

Scribe, James Pittman.

"Let Me do the hard jobs, Mr. Farmer"

TOBACCO farming — or any other kind — is easier and more profitable when you use WIRED help! Reddy Kilowatt does scores of chores at such little cost:

- Runs the oil burner or stoker for heat to cure tobacco!
- Runs the fans to circulate steady heat for better curing!
- Lights the packing house for better grading, safety and convenience!
- Milks the cows, cools the milk, separates the cream, churns the butter!
- Dries the hay, lifts the hay, fills the silo!
- Pumps the water, heats the water, saws the wood!
- Increases egg, poultry, and livestock profits!
- Brings city conveniences into the farm home, and does many, many more things too numerous to mention!

Thanks to sound business management and experience, farmers in VEPCOland enjoy LOW-COST electricity. Are YOU making the most of your CHEAPEST farm help?
