MISS JUNE GARDNER

WEDS D. C. ROBERSON

Miss June Marsh Gardner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Gardner, was married to David Clifton Roberson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Roberson at four o'clock on Sunday, September 17, in the Fair View Christian Church. The Rev. Preston E. Cayton officiated at the double ring ceremony. Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Effie B. Holliday, pianist and Bobby Lilley, soloist, presented a program of nuptial music. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of cream white satin, fashioned with a scoop neckline encircled by a satin bertha with cutout embroidery entwined with seed pearls, and long sleeves ending in all points over the hands. The full gathered skirt forming into a sweeping train, accented the wedding band waistline. Her veil was of French bridal illusion. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white purple throated orchid and a shower of white satin streamers. Miss Beulah Gardner, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of blue satin faille taffeta with a fitted bodice, draped shoulders and full skirt. Her bouquet was pink carnations with matching ribbon. Earl Moore was best man. Ushers were Dillon Wynne and Jasper Perry. For traveling the bride changed to a dress of black crepe and matching accessories. Her corsage was the orchid lifted from her prayerbook. After September 22 the young couple will make their home on Houghton Street in Williamston.
