Boy Scouts Report Their Activities

Troop 27
Enoch Crisp, our Junior (Assistant) Scoutmaster opened our meeting last Tuesday by having Bill Dudley read a few verses from the Bible. James Pittman, our scribe, led us in the Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Matthews discussed plans for going to Plymouth. On Wednesday we will march in the Harvest Festival parade. We were advised that if our uniforms were soiled from our Plymouth trip to have them cleaned.

Mr. Jack Hogart was our guest speaker for the evening. He asked Mr. Matthews how many boys we had in our troop. He was told that the number was not definite yet as we are reorganizing the troop and patrols. Mr. Hogart explained to us that a training program would be held at Camp Charles to help Patrol leaders understand what they were to do. He said that the Explorers would work with the troop, and that already some programs have been carried out for the Explorers. He also told us that the Boy Scouts would take part in a Civil Defense Plan but that this has not been organized yet.

After much discussion Mr. Matthews told us to see the patrol leaders and tell them if you want to be in their patrols. Joe Clayton, Tommy Cooke, and James Pittman received certificates for passing to second class. We then closed the meeting with the Scoutmaster's Benediction.

James Pittman, Scribe
