

Miss Norma Fagan In College Event

Raleigh—Straw hats, blue jeans, plaid shirts, gingham frocks, artificial freckles, and corn cob pipes appeared at Meredith College last week-end when students and faculty alike participated in the Eighth Annual "Corn Huskin' Bee." The dining hall that evening took on an old fashioned farm house appearance as costumed couples vie for the "best dressed" prize.

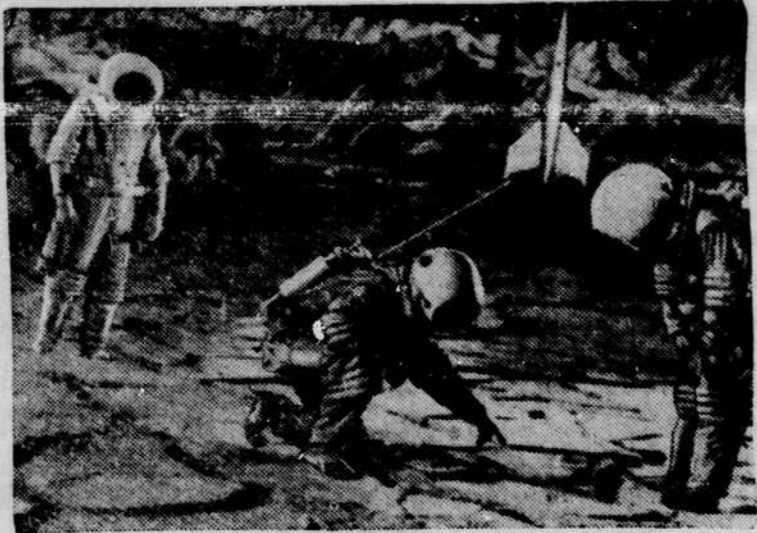

During dinner there was entertainment by the College Folk Dance Group, and contests among the classes and faculty in tall tale telling and original song skits, following which the party proceeded out-doors for the featured corn husking bee and competition in hog-calling and chicken-calling. Final event featured country folk dancing by the entire group, with members of the Folk Dancers under Miss Doris Peterson assisting with the various steps.

Sponsored annually by the student Athletic Association, the Bee occasions spirited competition among the classes, as well as the faculty. Hope Hodges of Washington, N. C., is student president. Norma Fagan of Jamesville was a member of the performing Folk Dance Group, and was one of the winners in the song skit for juniors.

Doll Show To Feature Halloween Carnival

It was announced yesterday by the committee in charge that a doll show would be one of the features of the Halloween Carnival to be held by the Woman's Club in a local warehouse on Saturday night of this week.

All persons are urged to enter their dolls in the contest and show as a large number of entries is desired. While most of the entries are likely to be made by the
