

"The Show-Off" Plays Here Soon

The Williamston Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the Barter Theatre's production of George Kelly's classic modern comedy, "The Show-Off" at Williamston High School on Wednesday, November 29.

One critic has called "The Show-Off" the best comedy which has been written by an American. In the play the human personality has never been more vivid, more truthful and more complete in the American theatre.

"The Show-Off" depicts with great realism a short span in the life of Aubrey Piper, who is typically American. You have seen him on the street, sat by him on the bus and worked with him in the office. He is a character from the real American life.

Early in the play the audience will hate Piper but as the final curtain has fallen they will have loved him. As an egotist of the top order, a liar and braggart, Piper runs with full steam through

COMEDIAN

Caddell Burroughs (Mr. Aubrey Piper) is in his third season with the Barter Theatre. Born in Paris, Texas, he attended the university of Texas and played many leads for Margo Jones, Broadway director and pioneer in the theatre-in-the-round movement. He also kept busy in radio work until he joined the air corps for the war years. He is best remembered in theatrical circles for his work in George Abbott's production of "Kiss and Tell" on Broadway and in Chicago.

Action Filled Epic Has A Top Cast

Boasting a brilliant cast headed by Hedy Lamarr and Ray Miland, an action crammed story and stunning color by Technicolor, the entire play, remaining the same character throughout the play. Only the circumstances the audience's opinion of him.

Aubrey's wife, Amy, married him and sticks to him despite her family's hatred for him. Mrs. Fisher, Amy's mother, and her father hate the show-off with vehemence. Aided by the audacity of Piper, Joe, his brother-in-law, perfects an invention and reaps a handsome profit. Other family figures in "The Show-Off" are Clara and her husband, Frank Hyland, Mr. Gill and Mrs. Rogers.

Paramount's lusty outdoor epic, "Copper Canyon," arrives Wednesday at the Watts Theatre.

One of the most exciting western dramas ever presented by Hollywood, according to advance reports, "Copper Canyon" is set against a background of violence and intrigue in the mining region of Nevada just after the Civil War. The plot centers around an embattled group of Southern veterans being driven from their land by a crooked sheriff and his deputies in the pay of a Yankee industrialist who owns the only copper smelter in the area.

Having made her debut in Technicolor in "Samson and Delilah," beautiful Hedy Lamarr again has the benefit of the color cameras in "Copper Canyon," her first western. She plays the sultry owner of a dance and saloon who falls in love with and joins Miland in his fight against the syndicate that controls the smelter.

A writer says that if women ever do get equal rights it will be quite a comedown for some of them.
