MISS MOBLEY BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. EARL ARP

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in the Macedonia Christian Church Miss Virginia Harrison Mobley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mobley of Williamston, was united in marriage to Mr. Earl De Forrest Arp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Earl Arp of Akron, Ohio. The Rev. Preston E. Cayton of Edenton, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Virgil Wobbleton of Bear Grass.

The bride and bridegroom entered the church together. Miss Mobley wore a suit of winter white with navy accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Leroy Harrison, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of winter green with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mr. Asa Rogerson of Williamston was best man.

Mrs. Mobley chose for her daughter's wedding a grey suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Community building.

The bride's table, covered with a linen cloth, was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums and fern flanked by burning tapers.

Mrs. Mobley served the wedding cake after the bride and groom had cut the first slice. Mrs. Virgil Wobbleton presided over the punch bowl. Ice cream, nuts and mints were also served.

After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in Richmond, Virginia.

MISS LAURA PEELE WEDS OLLIS LILLEY

Miss Laura Frances Peele, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Peele of Griffins Township, became the bride of Ollis Lilley, son of Mr. Arthur Lilley and the late Mrs. Lilley of Jamesville, Sunday afternoon at four thirty o'clock in a candlelight ceremony at the Macedonia Christian Church. The Rev. P. E. Cayton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Daryl Taylor of Everetts, pianist, rendered a program of nuptial music. Miss Janice Manning, soloist, sang "The Rosary" and "Through The Years". Concluding the ceremony, Miss Manning sang "The Lord's Prayer" as a benediction.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Peele wore a gown of egg shell satin fashioned with a tunic bertha of Chantilly lace and a yolk of marquisette outlined in seed pearls. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a plaited bandeau of illusion laced with seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums showered with white streamers.

Mrs. David Rogerson was matron of honor. Her gown was of rose taffeta styled with fitted bodice, pleated bertha and hoop skirt. She wore mits and a bandeau of matching material and carried a nosegay of yellow chrysanthemums.

Bridesmaids were Miss Daisy Coltraine, niece of the groom, Mrs. Robert Peele, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. D. B. Rogerson and Miss Mary Ola Lilley. Their gowns, two of green taffeta and two of gold taffeta, were identical in style to that worn by the matron of honor. Their mits and bandeaus were of matching material and they carried nosegays of yellow chrysanthemums.

Miss Jeanette Lilley, niece of the groom, and Miss Helen Griffin, cousin of the bride, were junior bridesmaids. Their gowns of green and gold were identical to those of the bridesmaids.

Little Jo Peele Smith of Raleigh, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a dress of rose taffeta styled like that of the matron of honor and carried a white satin covered basket filled with pink rose petals.

Evan Griffin was best man. Us-hers were Bill Peele, cousin of the bride, Robert Peele, brother of the bride, David Rogerson and D. B. Rogerson.

Mrs. Elbert Manning and Mrs. H. R. Hunt were mistresses of ceremony.

Mrs. Henry Peele, mother of the bride, wore a black dress with black accessories. Mrs. Mary Eli-griffin, with whom the groom made his home for many years, wore a black dress with black accessories. Both wore corsages of white carnations.

The bride, a graduate of Williamston High School, attended Meredith College and Kings Business College in Raleigh. She is now associated with the Virginia Electric and Power Company. Mr. Lilley was graduated from Farm Life High School after which he spent three years in the service. He is now engaged in farming.

Upon Mr. and Mrs. Lilley's return from a wedding trip to un-announced points they will be at home with the bride's parents. For traveling the bride chose a suit of toast brown Botany and brown accessories. Her corsage was of carnations.

Immediately following the wedding rehearsal on Saturday night, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Peele, Jr., brother and sister-in-law of the bride, entertained the wedding party and friends at a cake cutting at the Macedonia Club house. Mrs. H. U. Peel greeted the guests.

The bride's table, centered with a candelabra and flower arrangement, held a three tiered wedding cake and punch bowl. Mrs. Peele, mother of the bride, served cake and Mrs. Mac Roberson poured punch. Mints and nuts were served to approximately one hundred guests.

Presiding at the guest register was Mrs. J. Lilley.

Music was furnished during the evening by Mrs. Daryl Taylor and Miss Janice Manning.

Goodbyes were said by Mrs. R. H. Peele, Jr.

Miss Gertrude McLawhorn and Miss Trulah Ward Bailey were hostesses on Saturday, October 21, at the former's home at a supper given in the honor of Miss Laura Frances Peele and Mr. Pete Lilley.

Arrangements of candles and flowers were used on each of the seven beautifully appointed tables. Mesdames D. C. McLawhorn, H. P. Mobley and J. O. Daniels served the twenty eight guests.

Miss Peele received a corsage of carnations and a silver bon bon dish from her hostesses.
