

You've Been Waiting For Our Anniversary Sale! Here It Is!

This year, despite a limited inflation and the rising cost of merchandise, we are again conducting our anniversary sale, a custom of years past. During this sale, present price trends will be ignored and we'll continue to follow the established practice of giving our customers the best values to be found in any Martin County furniture store. You'll find our anniversary celebration values cannot be duplicated at wholesale prices today. If you need or are planning to buy furniture we urge you to attend our store-wide event. Price our merchandise. Compare quality. See for yourself that, as we have proven to you in the past years, we will save you substantially on every purchase you make.

Beginning Thurs., Nov. 16
