

Thirteen Seeking Divorces In Next Session Of Court

On August 28, 1950, James Ramsey, Jr., filed suit for divorce from Nancy N. Ramsey, saying they were married January 9, 1948, and separated in July, 1948, alleging that separation was not of his. On September 5, of this year, Nancy Ann Ramsey filed suit for divorce from James Ramsey, Jr., saying they were married January 9, 1948, and separated August 28, 1948, that the separation was not fault of hers, and that the one child born of the union was in the custody and care of her mother, Mulster Butler.

Married to Willie Woolard December 24, 1936, Vinoa Woolard is suing him for divorce, stating that they were separated in July, 1947, and no children were born of the union and that he lives part time in this State and part time in Michigan.

Charging his wife with having committed adultery during 1949 and 1950 with Jas. or Roy Perkins, John Robert May is suing Inora May for a divorce. They were married in 1946 and separated on September 5, 1949.

Madeline Busy is seeking a divorce from Charles Busy, the plaintiff stating in the complaint that they were married May, 10, 1944, and separated in August, 1946, that no children were born of the union, and that separation was by mutual consent.

Betty L. Coltrain is suing Carroll C. Coltrain for divorce, stating in the complaint that they were married August 17, 1941 and separated August 13, 1948.

Declaring their separation in May, 1936, was no fault of his, Mack Williams is suing Katie Lee Williams for a divorce. They were married in March, 1928.

As A Racing Car Demon He Stars

"To Please a Lady," excitement-pitched M-G-M drama co-starring Clark Gable and Barbara Stanwyck on the Viccar screen, Sunday and Monday gives the popular Gable the type of role on which his reputation has been built. The new picture has him cast as the country's hottest automobile racing driver; the scourge of midget and dirt tracks from Newark to Texas and, eventually, the famous Indianapolis Speedway. On Gable a script like this looks good because he "would rather drive a fast car than fish—or maybe even hunt!"

Gable recently took delivery on a Jaguar X-K type English sports car capable of rolling up 132.6 miles per hour. He has had it up to 112 so far on the dry lake test course. That's not as fast as he once coaxed his Dusenberg Special, but fast enough. "The road starts coming at you awfully fast after you pass 100 miles per hour," he grins.

Gable didn't start wheeling fast cars off the top. He's had one or another type of hot buggies since his lumber jack and oil-mucking days, most of which he pasted together himself from wrecking yards. He can and does talk the mysterious lingo of grease monkeys and the boys who speak in terms of thrust, bore, stroke, piston displacement and the rest of it.

is suing L. W. Gurkin, operator of Albemarle Beach, for $25,000 damages as the result of the fatal injury his son received while bathing at the defendant's beach on July 31, 1949.

it have a mechanic's respect for his savvy.

Because Producer - Director Clarence Brown was determined to make "To Please a Lady" as authentic as possible (it is, for instance, the first racing picture to be shot at racing speed), he had a number of race-drivers play themselves in the picture.
