Boy Scouts Report Their Activities

Troop 27

The regular meeting of the Boy Scouts of Troop 27 started Tuesday night at 7:05. The meeting was called to order by the Jr. Assistant Scout Master Enoch Crisp.

Scoutmaster Mr. Matthews asked Patrol leader Joe Clayton if most of the boys were there. He replied that all but one was present. Mr. Matthews thanked us for participating in the Legion Parade. Scouts from Plymouth, Oak City and Bear Grass also participated.

John Clark read us a few verses from the Bible and Dickie Clayton led the Troop in the Lord's Prayer.

Afterwards Enoch Crisp took up dues. As each boy came up he saluted Enoch, paid and went back to his seat.

For a few minutes free time was declared. During free time chairs were repaired and the room furniture was repaired. The room was cleaned up and the trash disposed of in a proper way.

On the 26th of November we are to meet at 2 o'clock to go to Little Bear's grave. We are going in full uniform.

The Green Bar Patrol meets with Mr. Matthews at his home on the 16th.

The meeting was closed with the Scoutmaster's Benediction.

Local F. H. A. Chapter Installs New Officers

On Wednesday of last week the Williamston Chapter of the F. H. A. held its installation service of the incoming officers for the year 1950-51.

The presiding officer was the outgoing president, Dorothy Cherry. The outgoing officers quoted the purposes of the F. H. A. and the duties of each officer, after which each new officer received a rose, the F. H. A. flower.

The incoming officers are: President, Gloria Taylor; vice president, Jean Holloman; secretary, Theresa Modlin; treasurer, Marie Peele; reporter, Betty Mobley; historian, Evelyn Nicholson; song leader, Gerel Lamb; and pianist, Sally Roberson.

The stage was centered by a table covered in white. The centerpiece was composed of red roses with white candles on either side.

The program was concluded by the singing of the United Nations Hymn.

In "Who's Who" At College In Wilson

Bernelle White, local girl, was one of eight members of the senior class at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, who will have their names included in the 1950-51 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges".

Nominations were made by the college faculty on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character, participation in student activities and campus citizenship.

Each student who becomes a member is awarded a certificate of recognition, recognition in the annual publication for the year during which he was selected, and is entitled to benefits of the Student Placement provided by the organization.

"Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" is designed to render service as a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement and as a standard of measurement for students comparable to other recognized scholastic and service organizations. It has been published annually since 1934.

Postpone Minstrel Show In Jamesville School

Plymouth's all-star minstrel, scheduled to be presented in the Jamesville school auditorium this evening, has been postponed until Friday night, it was announced today.

The delay was arranged when it was learned that the date for the Plymouth-Williamston football game had been moved up a day from Friday to Thursday.

In Local Hospital

Mr. Herbert Manning of the Farm Life community is receiving treatment in Brown's Community Hospital.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held on Monday evening, November 13, at 8 o'clock in the Legion Hut. The president called the meeting to order followed by the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. The Lord's Prayer was prayed in unison and the members stood for thirty seconds in honor and memory of the war dead. The Preamble to the Auxiliary Constitution was repeated and led by the president.

The secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and the treasurer, Mrs. Arthur White, gave her report; both reports approved as read.

Mrs. Rush Bondurant, Child Welfare Chairman, reported that the unit donated $10.00 to a child for medical attention and food. She asked that she be contacted by any member who knows of needy children that the Unit might help.

The rehabilitation chairman reported that the gifts have been mailed to the Hospital Gift Shops. If anyone did not contribute their gifts, Mrs. James Bulluck asked that she be contacted in order that she may collect the gifts for bingo parties at the hospitals.

Mrs. Harrington reminded the members to bring their Holiday Coin Cards, completed to the December meeting.

The members enjoyed a very interesting report given by Ruthie Lilley, who was sponsored by the local unit, on the week she spent at Girls' State.

Mrs. Harrington asked the members of the Unit to meet with her for the December meeting. There being no further business, Mrs. Harrington declared the meeting adjourned. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. John A. Ward and Mrs. Raleigh Harrington.—Reported.
