Cars Damaged In Freak Accident

Approximately $200 damage was incurred during an accident near here Monday morning about 2 o'clock when the front wheel of a 1939 Chevrolet driven by Charlie Brady, colored of Robersonville, came off and hit the back of a 1939 Oldsmobile belonging to Cecil Bullock and parked on Main Street Extension near the Jab Roberson residence.

Local officers investigating the accident said that the fender and bumper of the Chevrolet was badly torn and that damages to the Oldsmobile amounted to about $100.
