NEED GLASSES?

Ridgeway's OPTICIANS

Ground Floor Professional Bldg. Raleigh, N. C.

Mr. Dan Goldenmith, 3024 Curron Road, Louisville, Ky., owner of Google Cut Rate Store at 935 West Broadway, says there just aren't enough words in the English language to praise HADACOL correctly. He says he knows most folks don't realize what a change HADACOL can make in their life if their systems are deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin.

Here is Mr. Goldenmith's statement: "Before I started taking HADACOL I was run down and nervous—and had a hard time sleeping nights. With my work in the store I have to spend sometimes 14 hours a day on my feet. Since I am in the retail business I saw how many folks were asking for HADACOL so I decided to try it myself. After the first couple of bottles I could tell a definite improvement. Now I have all the pep and energy in the world, my nerves are steady as ever and I really do get a good night's sleep. HADACOL is wonderful—I not only take it, but recommend it to all my customers. I praise the day Senator Dudley J. LeBlanc put HADACOL on the market."

HADACOL is So Different
Thousands are benefiting from HADACOL... whose systems lack Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. HADACOL is so wonderful because HADACOL helps build up the hemoglobin content of your blood (when iron is needed) to carry these great Vitamins and Minerals to every body organ—to every part of the body.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance and if you don't feel better with the first few bottles you take—you get your money back. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospital Size, $3.50. If your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from The LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana. © 1950, The LeBlanc Corporation.

Borrows Wrong Car On Street

Borrowing his brother's car to make a trip from the Standard Fertilizer Company plant up the street last Friday, Paul H. Peel parked the machine on Main Street, attended to the business at hand and made ready to return to the plant.

Paying no attention, and really not knowing his brother's car too well, the young man got into a car, inserted the key in the switch, cranked up and returned to the river where he parked the machine and went on about his duties. About three hours later, Jos. Peel, the owner, made ready to come up town, but could not find his car. Paul told him where he had parked it. "But that's not my car," Joe explained. "Well, that's the one I drove down here," Paul explained.

The two got busy, notified police and learned that Mrs. P. B. Cone's car, almost matching the Peel car in model and appearance, was missing. The correction was made without further delay. Paul is still trying to figure it all out, how he mistook the identity of the cars and why the key to one car would fit another.

Bear Grass Junior Class To Present Play Dec. 1

A good laugh is good for the soul. And there are at least a hundred good laughs in the three-act comedy, "He Couldn't Marry Five," which is to be given by the Junior class of Bear Grass High School in the school auditorium on the evening of December first. The title of this play alone is enough to make one chuckle because it brings to mind all sorts of complications. Well, "He Couldn't Marry Five" more than lives up to its title—it is at the same time laughable and charming, crazy and enjoyable. This is because it is so true to life. Yes, "He Couldn't Marry Five" is a very human play—one that amuses, people while seeing it, and they remember for a long time afterward. It is different from the run-of-the-mill farce comedies to which we are used because it is not exaggerated or overdone—it could happen, and who knows but what it has? "He Couldn't Marry Five" is the type of play that appeals to men, women and children alike, so bring the whole family—they'll be grateful to you for having given them one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year when they see, "He Couldn't Marry Five." Admission, children 25 cents, adults 35 cents.

Essay winners were Melva Wynn and Judith Rogers from the high school.

Judges were Miss Harriett Tucker, Miss Lamina Baker, and Miss Lissie Pierce. The posters are now on display in the office window of the Unemployment Bureau.

Jno. P. Rogerson At Great Lakes

John P. Rogerson, seaman recruit, USN, son of Mrs. Ethel M. Rogerson of Route 2, Box 145, Williamston, N. C., is undergoing recruit training at the world's largest Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois.

Recruit training is the sharp break between civilian and Naval life in which the new Navy man learns the fundamental principles of the Naval service.

In the course of his training the recruit is taught seamanship, Navy customs, terms, basic ordnance, gunnery, signaling and navigation.

Upon completion of his training the recruit is assigned either to units of the Fleet or to a service school for specialized training.
