MISS DOROTHY COREY WEDS C. L. BREWER

The first Baptist Church of Tarboro was the scene of a lovely formal wedding on Saturday, November 25, at seven o'clock in the evening, when Miss Dorothy Corey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnson Corey of Williamston, became the bride of Mr. Charles Lloyd Brewer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Brewer of Tarboro.

The Reverend Carl E. Ousley, pastor of the church, officiated to perform the impressive double ring ritual.

The couple spoke their marriage vows before an altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums interspersed with numerous lighted Cathedral candles in branched candelabra and with a background of ivy and magnolia leaves formed a beautiful setting for the wedding scene.

A prelude of wedding music was played by the organist, Miss Gazelle Moore. At the ceremony Mr. Lynwood Pollard of Lenoir sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly". The traditional wedding marches were used for the pre-cessional and recessional and "The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Mr. Pollard for the benediction.

The bride entered the church with her uncle, Mr. H. Gabe Roberson of Williamston, by whom she was escorted and given in marriage. She wore with grace and dignity her wedding gown fashioned of ice blue satin designed with deep net yoke outlined with encrusted bead pearls and long fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. The very full gathered skirt finished with a bustle was draped in soft folds and extended into a court train. Her chapel length veil was attached to a hat made of ice blue nylon net shirred into a soft fullness and edged with a ruffle of the lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white rosebuds, centered with a white orchid showered with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Elton Harrison of Williamston, attended her sister as matron of honor. Gowned in mint green satin combined with net she wore a matching headdress of net and elbow length satin mitts and carried a cascade bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Bridesmaids were Miss Ruby Norris of Tarboro, and Mrs. Margaret R. Revels of Williamston, cousin of the bride. They wore gowns of mint green satin and net, the design repeating that of the honor attendant. Their headdresses and mitts were matching and their bouquets were of yellow and lavender chrysanthemums.

The young Misses Linda Roberson, cousin of the bride of Williamston, and Flora Mae Boddie, step-sister of the groom of Tarboro, were flower girls and wore dresses of white satin and carried baskets filled with rose pedals. Mrs. Ray Gurganus, cousin of the bride of Williamston, was Mistress of Ceremonies.

Fred Davenport, Jr. was best man for the bridegroom. Ushers for the ceremony were Maurice Roberson, uncle of the bride, and Ray Gurganus, both of Williamston; Ervin Price of Tarboro and Joe Brewer, Jr., cousin of the bridegroom of Wilson. The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of black crepe with black accessories, and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's step-mother wore a dress of wine crepe with black accessories and an orchid corsage.

Recent Bride

Mrs. Claudius McGowan is the former Miss Allie Harden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harden of near Plymouth. Her marriage to Dr. McGowan, son of Mrs. Martha Ann Harris and the late Lemon McGowan of Plymouth, was solemnized last Thursday afternoon in the Methodist Church at Plymouth.

the rehearsal Friday night, November 24, several friends of the couple entertained at a cake cutting, complimenting the couple.

On November 11, Mrs. Johnson Corey was hostess at a miscellaneous shower, honoring her daughter, Miss Dorothy Corey, bride-elect. The room was attractively decorated, carrying out the bridal colors of green and white. Miss Corey received many lovely and useful gifts which she opened and graciously acknowledged. Ice cream, cake, nuts and mints were served to approximately seventy-five guests.

On November 20th, Mrs. Ray Gurganus and Mrs. Margaret R. Revels complimented Miss Dorothy Corey and Mr. Charles "Dick" Brewer, bride and groom elect, at a party. Upon arrival Miss Corey was presented a corsage of carnations, and received a vegetable dish in her chosen pattern, a gift of the hostesses. Cakes, nuts and mints were served to the honorees, Mr. and Mrs. Stencil Tarboro. Immediately following
