

Special Show At Hamilton Theater

Coming to the stage of the Hamilton Theatre for 1 day only on Dec. 3 after playing theatres and radio shows all over the east including the Madison Square Garden Rodeo in which the Hollywood cowboy star, Ray Whitley was starred, will be Sally and her Montana Plainsmen featuring Sally, the Montana gal with the golden voice and Tex Don, singer and comedian deluxe. Three other members round out the cast of this swell entertainment event including "Tommy", "Chubby" and "Sleepy" who really play and sing those western songs the way you like to hear them. And incidentally, the group has just completed a tour with Ken Maynard, famous screen star!

NOTE OF THANKS
I am indeed grateful to my neighbors and other friends who were so kind and thoughtful during the recent short illness and death of my husband. The response by Drs. V. E. Brown and J. T. Llewellyn to our call for help is greatly appreciated and will long be remembered along with the kind acts and the beautiful floral offering.
Mrs. Ben F. Roberson.

FIREMEN'S SUPPER

Williamston's volunteer firemen and their wives and special guests enjoyed a delicious dinner in the George Reynolds Hotel dining room last evening. They were guests of Mrs. Van G. Taylor who made the dinner possible as a token of appreciation for the service rendered by the firemen when they were called to a fire on one of her farms some time ago.

Mayor Robt. Cowen briefly addressed the group, and Chief G. P. Hall, in behalf of the department, expressed his appreciation to Mrs. Taylor for the thoughtful remembrance.

Attended Funeral

Among those attending the funeral of Mr. Lee House in Robersonville Tuesday afternoon were: Dr. Chas. Harris, John Henry Edwards, Luther Peel, M. W. Holloman, James Bailey Peel, Clarence Britton, Rudolph Saunders, Hugh Horton, Paul Simpson, Billy Peel, Sam Mobley, Sam Getsinger, Worth Mobley, Bill Harrison, and Sam Lilley.

Spent Sunday Here

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Mobley and family, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Woodcock and family, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Hemmingway and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce E. Roebuck spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Jones.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the kindness, gifts, and floral offering during my recent illness in the hospital. I would like to extend my thanks to Dr. Brown and his staff. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.
Mrs. Elmer Modlin.
