MISS JO ANN GEREN WEDS JAS. KNIGHT

Cleveland, Tennessee—The marriage of Miss Jo Ann Geren, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Geren, and James Earl Knight, Jr., formerly of Williamston, son of Mrs. Harlan Troth and the late James E. Knight was solemnized Wednesday, Nov. 22, at First Methodist Church. The Rev. Elton Jones, pastor, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a suit of taupe gabardine with matching accessories. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers.

The bride's attendants were Miss Betty Crocker of Kingsport and Miss Margaret Beckett of Cleveland and Chattanooga.

Mr. Harlan Troth served as the bridegroom's best man. Mr. Knight was educated in the schools of North Carolina. He served three and a half years with the U. S. Navy. He is now associated with Cleveland Electric System.

Following a short wedding trip to North Carolina, the couple is residing at their apartment on Ocoee St.

Juniors Present Play Tomorrow

The Junior Class of the local high school will present a three-act mystery farce, "Mumbo-Jumbo," in the Williamston High School auditorium on Friday, December 8. There will be a matinee performance at school children and an evening performance at eight o'clock. Admission to the play will be 25 cents for students and 50 cents for adults.

The director, Miss Leona Sasser believes that "Mumbo-Jumbo" will have a warm reception, as this production, a mystery farce, departs from the usual run of comedies. In "Mumbo-Jumbo" playwright Jack Barnard uses authentic Voodoo folklore as practiced in Haiti in a spine-tingling, tense mystery that is offset by nonsensical farce. There are murders, screams, stiff bodies aplenty, Voodoo rites—everything required to make an enigmatic mystery.

The lover of the comedy will roar with laughter at the manly wife of Dick Reynolds, bumkinish Tweety, and the frail, helpless Mrs. Custer.

When Dick Reynolds and Pee Wee Smith, two frivolous college boys portrayed by Jack Daniels and Bobby Goff, respectively, are in desperate need of a thousand dollars, they convert Dick's Uncle John's country estate into a country resort. Pee Wee masquerades as the fabulous Mrs. Reynolds when it becomes necessary that Dick have a wife. Soon strange guests arrive, and a murder is committed. At this point everybody in the old farmhouse flies off at a tangent.

Others in the large cast include: Sarah Reynolds, Janie Perry; Sarah's husband, John, Lindelle Ward; Tweety, a bumpkinish country girl, Jackie Harris;
