

Three Defendants Booked To Go On Trial For Murder

Dallas Johnson, non-support. John Lewis Andrews, assault. Walter Barnes, non-support, had his case continued under prayer for judgment last June. Elmer Rodgers, trespassing. Llewellyn Barber, assault on female. Eli Davis, Jr., larceny. Ben Biggs, forcible trespass. James Arthur Brown is booked for forgery in five cases. He is charged with forging checks and cashing them with Eli Bowen, Mrs. J. R. Pierce, Marvin Cherry, Dewey Leggett and Darrell Taylor. Joe Biggs is charged with aiding and abetting forgery on four counts, and James Rawls is facing similar charges on three counts.

Sam Peel, Sr., is charged with the larceny of $36.80 worth of meat from A. T. Gurkin on June 30. Wesley James is booked for aiding and abetting in the case. Robert Bland and Elton Taylor are charged with the theft of burrap bags from Bill Abbott, and G. B. Whitfield is booked for aiding and abetting.

Levy Glen Hill, larceny of a car from Willie E. Mayo on August 17. Luther G. Leggett, Jr., is charged with hit-and-run driving. He is alleged to have run down and injured William Smallwood, Jr., on Williamstons east main street on July 21.

Roosevelt Everett is charged with an assault with intent to kill. Everett, joy riding in a taxi and without regard for the life and safety of others, shot James Edward Brown, colored youth, in the back with a pistol in front of the Red Front Grocery on Washington Street in Williamston on the night of July 21.

Collins (Rudy) Smith, breaking and entering. M. H. Hollis goes on trial again in the case in which he is charged with drunken driving. His case was in court last June and a mistrial was ordered when the jury could reach no verdict after deliberating several hours. Other drunken driving cases involve: Wm. W. Williams, James W. McQueen, W. R. Moran, F. B. Whitley, L. L. Whitfield, Elbert W. Modyette, Smallwood Harris, Charlie Razor, Washington Manning, and H. A. Gray.

tenced to jail for 4 months, suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and costs. The defendant is to violate no liquor law during the next five years. King D. Leggett, pleading guilty, was fined $100, plus costs, for drunken driving. Pleading guilty of violating the liquor laws, O. K. Harrison was fined $15, plus costs. Anna Woolard, charged with violating the liquor laws, was found not guilty.

Moses Wilson was fined $50, plus costs, for violating the liquor laws. He pleaded guilty. Pleading guilty of careless and reckless driving, Roosevelt Brown was fined $25, plus costs.

Johnnie Brown pleaded guilty of violating the liquor laws, and was fined $15, plus costs. Charged with an assault, John Cherry pleaded guilty and was sentenced to the roads for ninety days, suspended upon the payment of a $25 fine and costs. He is to remain of good behavior for twelve months.

Charged with speeding, William A. Yon and James E. Jenkins were taxed with the court costs. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs in the case in which Walter E. Leech was adjudged guilty of public drunkenness.

Plans Go Forward For Huge Annual Harvest Festival

a tremendous street dance will be staged on Washington Street, with both round and square dancing featured, and a special section will be set aside for the colored people. The Jaycees are planning to sponsor a number of riding devices on the lot beside Taylor's Dairy. Many floats are being planned for the parade, some to be built individually by the merchants and clubs, and others by a professional float builder. Clubs expected to enter floats are: Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and the Williamston Junior Chamber of Commerce. For any details about entering floats or other information about any phase of the Festival, interested parties are advised to call Al Sweatt, Managing Director of the Williamston Boosters, Inc., sponsors of the annual event, at 3123.—Reported.

Paving Contracts Extended To New Roads In County

from the corner where Highway 125 turns toward Oak City. Other projects to be included if the contract is further extended are not known, but it is thought that another six miles can be paved if the contractor is not forced to move his asphalt plant from its present location in Poplar Point Township.

Funeral Today In Local Church For Mrs. H. H. Cowen

The daughter of the late J. Robert and Eliza Bolton Mobley, she was born near Williamston sixty-nine years ago on February 11, 1882, and spent most of her life in Williamston. After attending the schools here she completed her education in a private school in Tarboro. In April, 1906, she was married to Henry Herbert Cowen who died in April 1950.

She was a member of the Baptist church for more than forty years and was regular in attendance upon its services and its work and support down through the years. Mrs. Cowen was devoted to her home, her family and friends. Even in the past few weeks and despite her own suffering, she was thoughtful of
