

Jamesville Gets Its First Victory Of This Season

Finishes Strong To Trim South Edgecombe Friday By 31 to 20

Although playing in its second game in the 11-man division, the Jamesville High School Terrers Friday afternoon defeated a favored South Edgecombe eleven in Pinetops 31 to 20 as the Martin County boys put on an unimpressive offensive show. Jamesville did not resort to punting during the entire game.

South Edgecombe's Webb scored all their touchdowns, giving them a 13-3 lead over Jamesville with two tallies in the first quarter. Jamesville reversed the situation in the second period by scoring two touchdowns and an extra point for a 13-13 tie at the half. South Edgecombe took the lead in the third quarter when Webb again gave them 7 points to 6 for Jamesville.

Starting the final quarter trailing 20-19, Jamesville struck back to take the victory with two touchdowns in the closing minutes.

Jamesville made 19 first downs, gained 290 yards on the ground and 160 yards in the air. Jamesville completed 6 out of 8 passes, 2 out of 3 by Gene Williams and 4 out of 5 by Bobby Hardison.

Scoring for Jamesville included two by Bobby Hardison, a 6-yard quarterback sneak and an end run of 12 yards, one by Bobby Waters after an 8 yard gain, one by Ronny Modlin on a 50 yard pass from Gene Williams that traveled from the Jamesville 40 to the South Edgecombe 10, one by Gene Williams on a 20 yard end run after Ronny Modlin had taken a long pass with a spectacular catch to set up the play and Bobby Hardison ran over the extra point.

Bobby Hardison and Gene Williams played outstanding ball on offense and defense while the middle of the line played excellent ball all the way from tackle to tackle. Center Don Brown recovered three opponents' fumbles. Bobby Hardison intercepted a So. Edgecombe pass on the 35 and ran it back to the 30 toward the close of the game and Jamesville was threatening as the game ended.

Red Hardison substituted for Horace Hardison in the last 45 seconds of the game to mark the only change made by Coach Bob

FIRE HAZARD Quiz

Q—What is the most rule of fire prevention?

A—Good housekeeping. Fires breed in accumulations of old newspapers and magazines, discarded furniture and mattresses or other combustible material. Clean out cluttered attics, basements and closets, and turn waste paper and rags in for salvage.

Q—How many fires occur in homes each year?

A—Nearly 400,000 which take a toll of about 7,500 lives. The National Fire Protection Association sponsors Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 7-13 to encourage the removal of common fire hazards which cause nine out of ten home fires.

Q—What structural hazards account for 50 percent of all residential fires?

A—Half of the fires occurring in homes are caused by defective chimneys and heating apparatus, flammable roofs, and electrical defects. These hazards can be minimized by regular inspection, cleaning and repair of the chimney and heating plant, replacement of worn electrical wiring, repair of defective appliances, and use of fire-resistant roofing.

Q—Where is a safe place to store gasoline or kerosene?

A—in underground tanks. If underground storage cannot be provided, the best place is a small shed apart from the house or other main buildings.

Q—How can grease fires in a kitchen stove be avoided?

A—Clean the oven regularly to avoid accumulation of grease, and keep grease containers away from the stove. If a grease fire should occur, put a large, flat cover over the burning pan or smother the fire by sprinkling a quantity of ordinary baking soda on it. Don't use water—it will cause the burning grease to splatter.

Q—What is still the nation's No. 1 fire hazard?

A—Carelessness with cigarettes and matches used to light them, the source of more than 91,000 home fires annually.

Q—Is it safe to use cleaning fluids in the home?

A—Only if it is a non-explosive fluid, such as carbon tetrachloride. Never bring gasoline, benzene, a naphtha or other volatile flammable liquids into the home for any purpose.

HE DOESN'T KNOW (Camden Chronicle)

A writer says that the people of this country went to sleep and when they awoke they found that the administration had already carried them a long way down the road to socialism. Sort of reminds us of the story of the lazy boy who was sent out to pasture a heifer, which was tied to a rope. The boy, desiring to take a nap, tied the rope about his waist and went to sleep. Something frightened the animal and it started down the meadow dragging the boy at a fast and furious pace. "Where're you going?" shouted a neighbor to the boy. "Don't ask me, ask the heifer," replied the boy.
