Auxiliary Holds Christmas Party

Mrs. Carlyk Langley, President, called the meeting to order. A pledge of allegiance to the Flag was given and the Star Spangled Banner was sung. Mrs. Sam Gessinger gave the devotional, after which the members stood for 30 seconds in silent remembrance of our war dead. The Preamble to the Constitution was then given.

Mr. Flay Sellers, member of the State Board of Health, from Raleigh, gave a very interesting talk on the Mass Survey of T. B. that is being conducted here in January. He asked that the local unit provide a three hostess committee to serve during this survey. Mrs. R. W. Bondurant will serve as chairman.

An exchange of Christmas gifts followed. Delicious refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.
