News As Reported In The Enterprise Forty Years Ago

AUGUST 16, 1912 Last Saturday night at a very late hour, Register Coffield was called from his slumbers to issue a marriage license for Mr. Lee Hardison and Miss Fannie Gurkin, of Williams Township. The couple with friends drove to the home of Justice J. B. Riddick about 2 o'clock in the morning and the vows were given which joins them through life. They took the wee sma' hours so that an added romance might be given to the affair. The bride is the niece of Mr. W. H. Gurkin, and was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hardison, soon after the death of her parents, and has grown to be a very attractive girl. Mr. Hardison is the eldest son of Mr. Simon Hardison and is a promising young farmer.
