

Twenty-Six Cases In County's Court Saturday Morning

Little, Jr., of Ayden was taxed with the costs.

Ernest and Clarence Godard were charged with violating the liquor laws. The case against Ernest was not pressed and Clarence pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to the roads for six months, the court suspending the road term upon the payment of a $25 fine and costs. He is to violate no liquor law for two years.

Pleading guilty of drunken driving, Irvin Reddick was fined $100 and taxed with the costs, the court suspending a six-month road sentence. He loses his license to operate a motor vehicle during the next twelve months.

Charged with violating the liquor laws, Lucy Bellamy was fined $25, taxed with the costs and is to violate no liquor law for two years.

Pleading guilty of careless and reckless driving, Robt. B. Windley, teen-ager, was fined $10 and taxed with the costs.

Jesse Baker was sentenced to the roads for six months on a larceny charge, the road term to be suspended upon the payment of a $50 fine and costs. Unable to make financial arrangements, he was booked to serve the road term.

Pleading guilty of speeding, Matthew Suggs of Rocky Mount was taxed with the court costs.

Pleading not guilty of careless and reckless driving, Horace Lee Hall was adjudged guilty of failing to yield right of way and Nashville, Tenn.—The neighbors, who had declared her voice so shrill and raucous that they went to court to demand that she be silenced, should have been embarrassed by the tremendous reception accorded Mrs. Wentworth Morris, a tiny lyric soprano, of nearby Clarksville, when she appeared as a guest performer at a Nashville Symphony Pops concert.

Vernon L. Gurganus, RFD 2, Williamston, was taxed with the costs for speeding.

Charged with driving after his operator's license was revoked, Willie Lee Timmons pleaded not guilty. Adjudged guilty, he was sentenced to the roads for ninety days, the court suspending the road term upon the payment of a $200 fine and costs.

Pleading not guilty, William Clark was adjudged guilty and taxed with the cost for an assault.

Kenneth Cherry was charged with non-support and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to the roads for six months, the court suspending the road term upon the condition that he pay $20 a month for the support of his child. He is to return to the court for further judgment at the end of two years.

The case in which Eugene A. Dutton was charged with speeding, was not pressed.

Geo. Junior Moore was adjudged not guilty of careless and reckless driving.

Charged with speeding eighty miles an hour, Joe Mobley asked for a bill of particulars. The request was denied, and the defendant appealed to the superior court.

Marine Critically Injured In Wreck Sunday Morning

Jones was thrown through the windshield and was badly cut about the head. He was treated in the Highsmith Clinic at Hamilton. The accident happened about five miles from Hamilton shortly before Sunday midnight. Patrolman B. W. Parker made the investigation.

Not far from the spot where Jones was doing his wild driving, Meryl F. Repsher, Cherry Point marine who was on his way home at 820 Market Street, Bangor, Pa., wrecked his 1948 Studebaker, causing damage estimated at $500 to his and about $150 damage to Columbus Worsley's 1938 Chevrolet. Repsher was driving north and was just about to pass the old Chevrolet when Worsley started to make a left turn into a driveway. No one was hurt, Patrolman J. O. Arthur said following the investigation Monday morning about 10:25 o'clock.

Albert Price ran into and cut down a power pole on Sycamore Street here last Saturday morning. Charged with damaging property and failing to report an accident, Price will be given a hearing before Justice Chas. R. Mobley Friday evening.

James Edward Warren, 48, of R. F. D. 2, Williamston, was painfully but not badly injured in an unusual accident about 1:00 o'clock Sunday morning. Warren was riding into Williamston with Cushing H. Barber in a four-door Plymouth and when they reached the intersection of the Jamesville Road and Washington Street, he opened the door and stepped out into the path of a car driven by Sherman E. Long of Durham. Hit a glancing blow, Warren was treated in a local hospital and discharged a short time later. Police Officer Tom Chesson said.

Mrs. H. Harrison Died Last Friday

(Robersonville Herald)

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for Mrs. Harriet Harrison, aged 95, of Eldon W. E. Grimes conducted the services at the Robersonville Primitive Baptist Church. Burial was in the Robersonville cemetery.

Mrs. Harrison died Thursday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Jenkins, with whom she had made her home near Robersonville for almost 30 years. She had been in failing health for several years and was confined to her bed the last six months of her life.

A native of Martin County, Mrs. Harrison was known and loved by many persons as a kind, Christian woman. She was a member of the Flat Swamp Primitive Baptist Church and was active in its work until her health failed.

In addition to her daughter, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Harrison is survived by three grandchildren, Sam Jenkins of Robersonville, Donald Jenkins of Bethel, and Mrs. Evelyn Sparks of Rock Hill, S. C. Two great grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Crandall Dies In Robersonville

(Robersonville Herald)

Mrs. W. W. Crandall, aged 62, died Monday morning at 5 o'clock at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Smallwood Harris, with whom she had been living for some time. A victim of arthritis, Mrs. Crandall had been an invalid for two years.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Crandall was Miss Ella Ross. She was born and reared in the Oak Grove Community and was a member of the Briar Swamp Baptist church near Stokes.

She is survived by the following children: J. S. Crandall, Robersonville; Mrs. Harris, Robersonville; Mrs. Albert Wallace, Raleigh; and Willis Robert Crandall, stationed at Fort Bragg.

Funeral services for Mrs. Crandall will be held at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon at the Robersonville Primitive Baptist Church. Elder A. B. Ayers of Bear Grass will conduct the services, assisted by Elder W. L. Grimes of Stokes. Burial will follow in the Robersonville cemetery.

Waynesville and Asheville are the only places in North Carolina, where oak wilt is now known to infest oak trees.
