Married Friday Afternoon

Miss McDaniel Weds Mr. James E. Griffin

Woodland. — In a ceremony Tuesday afternoon, December 30, Miss Margaret McDaniel and James Edwin Griffin were married at the home of the bride. The Rev. John L. Goff, pastor of the Williamston Christian Church, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. McDaniel of Woodland and Mr. Griffin is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William E. Griffin of Williamston.

The couple entered together. The bride's suit, an original model by Zelinka-Matlick, was of burgundy tweed, and her hat was of black velvet with sequins. She wore matching accessories and a shoulder corsage of a white orchid.

The bride's mother, Mrs. McDaniel, wore a grape colored dress with a corsage of talisman roses.

Mrs. D. M. Roberson, sister of the bridegroom, wore a wine colored dress with a corsage of white roses.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin left for a trip in the southern states.

Mrs. Griffin was graduated from East Carolina College and for several years has taught in the Williamston public schools.

Mr. Griffin was graduated from the University of North Carolina with a BS degree in commerce.

After the wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Griffin will be at home in Williamston where Mr. Griffin is engaged in business.

Miss Brown Speaks Vows With Lt. McCaffity On December 26

On Friday afternoon, December 26, at four o'clock in the Jamesville Christian Church Miss Margaret Manning Brown became the bride of Lt. Darwin William McCaffity, U. S. Army. The Rev. Harold Tyer of Bath officiated in the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Brown of Jamesville and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Duff McCaffity of Edward.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Effie Holiday, pianist, of Jamesville, and Miss Dorothy McCallum, soloist, of Roland.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Walter L. Brown, wore a gown of nylon tulle over bridal satin. It was fashioned with a taut bodice with a hand made flower of self material embroidered on the pleated nylon tulle criss-cross collar, with long satin sleeves ending in points over the hands. The skirt fanned out into a cathedral train. Her two tier veil of French illusion was attached to orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and sprays of white flowers on a white Bible.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Miss Sarah Brown of Jamesville with Mrs. Walter L. Brown, Jr., of Jamesville, sister-in-law of the bride, as matron of honor. The honor attendants wore nymph green gowns of nylon net and lace fashioned with a strapless bodice and a brief lace jacket. They wore matching mitts and headpieces and carried nosegays of red roses.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Shade Wood of Columbia, S. C., sister of the bridegroom, Miss Opal Roberson of Washington, Miss Elaine Futrell of Murfreesboro, and Miss Venetia Stallings of Jamesville. They wore gowns and accessories matching those of the honor attendants, and their nosegays were of red roses.

Honorary bridesmaids were Miss Dorothy Mizelle of Jamesville, Miss Collins Lewis of Bctnel, Miss Carol Ann Lee of Greensboro, and Miss Melba Manning of Williamston. Their flowers were arm corsages of red roses.

Duff W. McCaffity attended his son as best man.

Ushers were Shade Wood of Columbia, S. C., brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Edward Lee Martin of Jamesville, Walter L. Brown, Jr., and Donald M. Brown of Jamesville, brothers of the bride.

The mother of the bride wore an ice blue afternoon dress with off-white and black accessories. Her corsage was of red roses. The bridegroom's mother wore winter white with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, with Mrs. Edgar Brown of Jamesville receiving the guests.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Washington, D. C. For traveling the bride wore a powder blue dress with matching hat and brown accessories and an imported tweed coat. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. McCaffity is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College where she was outstanding in student activities and a member of the Golden Knot Honor Society. At the present she is teaching in Elizabeth City.

Lt. McCaffity is a graduate of Atlantic Christian College and is stationed at Fort Hancock, New Jersey.
