The Christian Viewpoint

Some people give as their excuse for remaining out of the Church the fact that there are hypocrites in the Church. Sometimes what appear to us as faults in our brethren are really scars—scars left by hard-fought battles against temptation.

Just suppose there were a little church somewhere which was made up of perfect people. Everyone was free of all faults and everyone did everything good a person could do.

No, it isn't corruption anymore, for some reason. If the Republicans are doing it, well, it's all right. But heaven help him if it had been a New Deal Democrat—Holley Mack Bell in the Bertie Ledger-Advance.

That Slack Look

We have been told that women's slacks do not come in odd sizes. Our informant says they just get that way from wear.—The Blakesburg (Iowa) Excelsior.

At Times

The times we are living in are wonderful times to live in at times.—Washington Post.

Mrs. Nazli Tlabar, Turkish delegate to free world peace conference in Washington: "Quit talking so much about peace and do something about it."

The poor man is happy; he expects no change for the worst.—Demetrus.

There is nothing so advantageous to a man as a forgiving disposition.—Terence.

60 Second Sermons

By FRED DODGE

TEXT: "The truest wisdom is resolute determination."—Napoleon.

An insurance man was asking questions of a cowboy who wanted insurance.

"Have you ever had any accidents?"

"No," was the reply.

"Never had an accident in your life?" the insurance man persisted.

"Nope. A rattler bit me once, though," said the cowboy.

"Well," said the insurance man, "don't you call that an accident?"

"Naw," replied the cowboy, "He bit me on purpose."

Very few criminals become criminals "on purpose." Because they have no purpose, they drift into crime as an easy way to live. They are lucky when they avoid being caught at once. Men achieve goals and keep their gains only when they do it "on purpose." Wilson Mizner said, "The man who wakes up and finds himself a success, hasn't been asleep." That man has become a success "on purpose." No baseball player ever batted 300 with accidental, half-hearted swings at the ball. He had to hit "on purpose." The younger men and women are when they set purposes for their lives and strive to reach them, the more certain are their successes. "Do whatever you do "on purpose". You can't depend on accidents for success.

What Used To Be Called "Corruption" Isn't Now

What used to be "corruption" isn't corruption anymore. The Democrats could do a thing and it was called crooked and editors and politicians all over the country were ruffled and shouted to high heaven and said that corruption in government ought to be rooted out.

But just the other day some oil-rich Texans came to Washington and handed Senator McCarthy a $6,000 automobile—a Cadillac, no less. And Senator McCarthy and his new bride get into it and roll away and nobody says a word.

It was terrible that some folks around Truman's White House got mink coats and Deep Freezers at a discount. It showed how crooked everybody was. But I'd hate to think what a ruckus would be stirred up in the conservative, Republican press if, say Gen. Harry Vaughan had received a Cadillac from a pressure group with an axe to grind. It would have been terrible.

Then there was Senator Bricker, a Republican from Ohio, who has been receiving substantial income from a law firm representing the Pennsylvania Railroad WHILE AT THE SAME TIME serving as Chairman of the Senate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce.

The Senator gets $11,500 retainer from this law firm although he hasn't practiced a day since he went to the Senate in 1947. And the committee he's chairman of passes on all legislation affecting railroads.

Whether Senator Bricker would be influenced by a law firm which pays him $11,500 toward legislation favoring a client of this law firm, well, we don't know.

"Everybody knows I'm honest," the Senator protests. But why not eliminate even the remotest possibility; wouldn't it be better to assign Senator Bricker to another committee?

And up in New York Republican Lt. Gov. Arthur H. Wicks that Gov. Dewey is trying to get to resign. He doesn't see anything wrong with hobnobbing at Sing Sing with the convicted Labor Extortionist Joe Fay. He was just trying to keep peace in labor. Imagine Gov. Dewey's getting upset about a little like that.

No, it isn't corruption anymore, for some reason. If the Republicans are doing it, well, it's all right. But heaven help him if it had been a New Deal Democrat—Holley Mack Bell in the Bertie Ledger-Advance.
