Church At Roper Scene of Wedding

Miss Peggy Louise Mizelle and A/3C Joseph D. Robertson were united in marriage on Thursday, December 3 at 4 P. M. in the Roper Christian Church with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Gardner, officiating. Only immediate families and friends attended the double rites. Airman Robertson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Robertson of Williamston and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Mizelle of Jamesville. The bride wore a light blue poodle suit with light blue accessories. Her hat was a navy blue felt with a soft veil and trimmed in seed pearls and rhinestones. She wore a shoulder corsage of red roses. The mother of the bride was dressed in a navy suit with navy accessories. The groom's mother wore navy crepe with navy accessories. Both wore corsages of red roses. The bride is a graduate of Jamesville High School and attended East Carolina College until the time of her marriage. Airman Robertson was graduated from the Williamston schools and before enlistment, he attended Chowan College. The couple will make their home in Riverside, California, and Airman Robertson will be stationed at March Air Force Base in Los Angeles. Mrs. Robertson will work as a secretary in a Riverside jewelry firm.

Auxiliary Plans Party Saturday

Arrangements for the Christmas Party of the American Legion Auxiliary to be held at the Hut on Watts St., Saturday night December 19th from 8:30 o'clock till are about complete. Each member is requested to come in costume (tacky or otherwise) and to bring a gift wrapped package for the Christmas tree. A prize is being offered to the member who wears the most unique costume. Judges are non-members. Mrs. Bruce L. Peele, chairman of decorations, will be assisted by mesdames P. B. Dillon, Hugh B. Griffin, Joe Johnson Jr., and Claude Hardison. This committee will assist Miss Maude Thomas, local teachers in preparation of Hut for youth group party on Friday night December 18th. Mesdames W. O. Griffin, Carlyle Langley and Arthur White are serving on the refreshment committee.

Jamesville Club Holds Meeting

The Jamesville Woman's Club met on Tuesday evening of last week in its newly acquired building—the old Primitive Baptist Church. The room was beautifully decorated with evergreens, red berries and candles. This radiated the joy of the women in having a club home of their own. The President, Mrs. Edgar Brown, presided over a short business session, after which she turned the meeting over to the "Public Relations Committee." A Christmas film, "The Guiding Star," was shown and gifts were exchanged.

The hostesses: Mrs. H. B. Gaylord, Mrs. J. A. Ellis, Mrs. C. T. Gaines and Mrs. J. E. Gardner served refreshments depicting Christmas—jello with whipped cream, party cakes, nuts, and coffee. The next meeting will be held on January 31, in the club building.
