Making Furniture Store Out Of The G. Reynolds Hotel

tel, Mr. John L. Hassell and officer Chas. R. Moore, moved out early yesterday morning to a suite of rooms in the old Martin County Bank building, diagonally across the street.
It was reported that a party, interested in leasing the hotel, came here yesterday, but was too late to have his bid considered.

group can do to solve our mental illness problem until the general public becomes seriously concerned. A positive way for an individual to express his serious concern is to join forces with other civic-minded persons who, though mental health organizations, are working in what is a major public need.

Congressman To Speak In Wilson

Wilson.—Brooks Hays, United States Congressman from Arkansas, will speak at a luncheon on the campus of Atlantic Christian College Friday, April 30, as a part of the program of the inauguration of Dr. Travis A. White, as the president of the college.
Dr. White will be inaugurated at ceremonies beginning at 11 a. m., that day in Howard Chapel on the college campus. He came to ACC last August 1, from the First Christian Church, Lubbock, Texas, where he was minister.
Congressman Hays will address the official delegates to the annual Bert Hardy Dining Hall scheduled at 12:30 P. M.
The Arkansas Congressman is a member of the important House committee on Foreign Affairs and has been in Congress since 1942.
He is a well known churchman and in 1951 received the annual layman's award given by the ministers of Washington for outstanding service. In 1950 he served as a vice-president of the Southern Baptist Convention.
A native of Russellville, Ark., Congressman Hays has long main-
