Shower Is Given For Bride-Elect

On Saturday evening, September 4, Mrs. Raymond Roberson, Mrs. Velma Bailey, Mrs. E. D. Harris, and Mrs. Leamon Keel were hostesses at a floating miscellaneous shower at the Bear Grass Community House, honoring Miss Doris Rogers bride elect of September 25.

The Community House was thrown en suite for the occasion and was beautifully decorated with arrangements of early fall flowers and English ivy. Mrs. E. D. Harris greeted the guests at the door and directed them to the bride's book, presided over by Mrs. Leamon Keel. Mrs. H. M. Ayers of Everetts, presided at the gift table.

The refreshment table was overlaid with an imported linen cloth centered with an artistic arrangement of white asters and fern. On either end of the table tall candelabra held burning bridal tapers. Mrs. Velma Bailey, assisted by Mrs. Raymond Roberson, served punch, individual bridal cakes, nuts, and mints. The bridal motif of green and white was used throughout the room and in the refreshment course.

The bride was remembered by the hostesses with a cake plate in her china pater and a lovely shoulder corsage.

Approximately fifty guests called during the evening.

County Boy Moved To Korea Recently

I Corps, Korea.—Sgt. John J. Wilkins, whose wife, Inell, of Route 1, Robersonville, N. C., recently arrived in Korea for service with the I Corps.

The I Corps one of three in the Eighth Army, coordinates an intensive post-truce training program for UN units under its control.

Sergeant Wilkins, 22-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wilkins of Route 2, Robersonville, entered the Army in November 1951. A communications wire chief with the 204th Field Artillery Battalion's Battery B, he arrived overseas from Fort Bragg, N. C.

Jimmie Johnson of Washington, N. C., field representative for Swift and Company's Plant Food Division who is well known in this county, will attend his annual sales meeting at the Bellevue-Stratford hotel in Philadelphia, September 27th.

Mr. Johnson will remain in Philadelphia three days during which time recent advances in Swift's Plant Food Division will be presented. Additions to Swift's fast growing garden line which now includes Vigoro, Endo-Pest, Endo-Weed and Instant Vigoro will probably be announced, as well as new developments in more efficient use of Swift's Red Steer plant foods and Gold Bear Brand weed controls.

Mr. Johnson will be in a position to bring back valuable information from this meeting for growers in this area.
