ANTI-TRUST BILLS PASSED IN HOUSE

TRIO OF IMPORTANT MEASURES IN ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM ENDORSED.

OPPOSITION MELTED AWAY

Railroad Capitalization, Clayton Omnibus and Trade Commission Bills Are Easily Passed.

Washington.—All three bills of the administration trust program passed the house and went to the senate for action. Opposition melted away when the final test came and the voting went through quickly and without incident.

When the trade commission bill came before the house for a final vote Progressive Leader Murdock moved that it be sent back to the interstate commerce committee with instructions to report the Murdock bill as a substitute.

WAR MUNITIONS CLEARED AT PORT

CARGO BOUND FROM NEW YORK TO MEXICO IS ON HIGH SEAS.

ORDER HAS BEEN DELAYED

Washington Sternly Exercised Over Situation Which May Supply Arms for War in Mexico.

Washington.—Ammunition for the Mexican Constitutionalists left American shores from New York bound for Tampico, while Mexican mediation apparently marked time at Niagara Falls, the attitude of the Constitutionalists a stumbling block in the negotiations.

Information that the steamer Antilla, which recently was fired on by Constitutionalists outside Tampico, had left New York with munitions of war, created considerable stir in Washington.

The vessel was cleared without interference on the part of the United States, greatly to the surprise of Secretary Bryan and other department officials.

Washington.—A terrific thunderstorm broke over Arlington National Cemetery while President Wilson was addressing a great crowd gathered for the unveiling of the monument erected there to the confederate dead.

OUTLOOK HOPEFUL VIEW AT CAPITOL

MEMBERS OF CARRANZA'S AGENCY ARE NOT EXPECTING IMMEDIATE ACTION.

CARGO OF ARMS IS PUZZLE

What Will Happen When Ammunition Ships Reach Mexican Waters is a Mystery.

Washington.—The Administration waited on Carranza in so far as progress in Mexican mediation was concerned.

At Constitutionalists headquarters here no immediate action was expected. Rafael Zubarran, General Carranza's chief representative in Washington, said:

"I transmitted the note to General Carranza. It probably will be two or three days before a response is dispatched. General Carranza is about to leave for Saltillo, which also will operate to delay his decision."

Asked directly about the chances for Constitutionalists representation at Niagara Falls, Mr. Zubarran said: "Affairs are getting better or, to quote Mr. Bryan's phrase, 'the situation is encouraging.'"

Washington officials would not discuss the situation for publication. John Lind conferred with members of the agency here, urging them to use their influence to have their chief reply favorably to the proposals of the mediators.

Luis Cabrera, mentioned as a probable delegate to the peace conference should Carranza agree to participate, was in conference with Mr. Lind for several hours after which Cabrera joined his colleagues, Mr. Zubarran, Jose Vasconcelos and Juan F. Urdiel.

While mediation waited on Carranza, the subject of ammunition bound from the United States for Carranza's forces was uppermost in discussion in official quarters.

It became known that Admiral Badger had been instructed by cable to keep watch on the Mexican Federal gunboats in the vicinity of Puerto Mexico, in view of reports from Mexico City that Huerta proposed to prevent, if possible, the landing at Tampico of the munitions en route to Carranza on the Cuban steamer Antilla.

Naval officers expressed doubt as to whether the Mexican boats could maintain a successful blockade of Tampico, in view of the fact that the United States had a large fleet of ships in the Gulf of Mexico.

It was generally regarded here as likely that ammunition shipments would reach Tampico unimpeded.

Gift to Nation of Monument to Confederacy, Distinctly American.

NORTH CAROLINA AT WORLD'S FAIR

STATE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE APPROPRIATES $15,000 FOR THE EXPOSITION.

DISPATCHES FROM RALEIGH

Doings and Happenings That Mark the Progress of North Carolina People Gathered Around the State Capitol.

The state board of agriculture completed the work of the semi-annual session and adjourned, having adopted a budget aggregating $125,000 for the expenses of the department in several divisions during the next six months.

There was included an appropriation of $15,000 toward the representation of this state in the Panama-Pacific Exposition next year, this being conditioned on the state commissioner's being able to carry through the plans now being formulated to install an exhibit with a special building the whole representation to cost around $50,000.

These plans were laid before the board by Governor Craig and J. A. Brown of Chadbourn, member of the state commission.

Governor Craig went into detail to the plans, stating that the purpose is to induce manufacturers and other business men to take part in the representation through exhibits and through moving picture representations for advertising purposes.

The railroad companies are also expected to take part and contribute considerably in finances for the representation of the state. The legislature will be asked at its next session to make an appropriation and Governor Craig assured the board of agriculture that the legislature would make a substantial appropriation for the purpose.

Camp of Instruction Is Changed.

Adjutant-General Laurence W. Young recently received a telegram from the commanding general of the Eastern department stating that the joint camp of instruction in North Carolina will be held at Camp Glenn at Morehead City, beginning in July.

All of the troops in the state will be sent there for a period of ten days, several companies comprising the divisions that will be there at various times.

The change with reference to the joint maneuver camps will necessitate a change in the dates for the camps of the other regiments as heretofore announced, but the dates will be given as soon as possible.

Board Elects Oil Inspectors.

The board of agriculture elected oil inspectors for the ensuing year as follows: Marvin M. Jones, Belhaven; Jacob Thompson, Pittsboro; J. H. Watson, Graham; C. J. Taylor, Lenoir Springs; C. S. Corpening, Horse Shoe.

Dr. R. H. Lewis Resigns.

Dr. R. H. Lewis delivered to Gov. Craig his resignation as secretary of the University of North Carolina, the resignation of his physical inability to longer serve or to attend the approaching important annual meeting at the University this week.

Cattle Tick Eradication in Lenoir.

Probably 275 farms in Lenoir county are quarantined by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the National Department of Agriculture, under the plan of eradicating the cattle tick, according to Doctor Foss, who is in charge of the work in several states.

H. A. Haynes Will Be Brought Back.

A requisition on the governor of Illinois was issued by Governor Craig for H. A. Haynes, former superintendent of the Methodist Children's Home of the Western Carolina Conference at Winston-Salem, he being wanted there for the embezzlement of $1,687 from that institution in 1912 while superintendent.

Many Teachers' Institutes.

STATE FARMERS SAVED $10,000,000

THIS IS ESTIMATED EFFECT IF COTTON EXCHANGE BILL IS PASSED.

SMITH HOPES FOR PASSAGE

Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia Says Stay in Session All Summer if Necessary.

Washington.—Senator Hoke Smith thinks that the passage of the cotton exchange bill now before the house will save the farmers of the South $70,000,000 annually. It will save to North Carolina farmers about $10,000,000. It will yield quick returns and break up gambling.

In a statement issued Mr. Smith said in part: "Much legislation has passed since the 4th of March, 1913, which will give an opportunity to the South for the development of its resources, but I do not believe that any of this legislation will more immediately bring a return to North Carolina and the South than the bill which passed the Senate and is now before the House to break up the present system of the New York Cotton Exchange."

"Through the New York Cotton Exchange there is sold and bought daily more cotton than in any other place in the world. Its daily price list for cotton both for immediate delivery and delivery during 11 future months is published each day in nearly every daily paper in the United States. The publication extends to most all foreign countries. They fix the estimate throughout the world of the market value of lint cotton. Many buyers in the East instruct their agents to buy at prices based upon the quotations of the New York Cotton Exchange. The Cotton Exchange thereby largely controls the prices to the farmer."

"The present system of conducting business in the cotton market is the seller through it to deliver in a way that makes it possible for him to sell middling cotton and deliver something else—odds and ends of cotton so poor that it is at times almost useless for manufacturing purposes. The system permits this delivery of inferior grades and character of cotton at the price of the middling cotton without the payment by the seller to the buyer of the market difference between what he delivers and the middling cotton which is nominally sold on the exchange."

"This ability to thus get rid of an honest delivery enables the seller to run down the price of cotton well below the actual value of the cotton which he has sold. As the price lists of the New York Cotton Exchange go far toward regulating the world's estimate of the true value of lint cotton, this running down of the price will be 14¢ to 2¢ below the ability to deliver something far below in value what has nominally been sold, enables the seller to run down the price list of the exchange of cotton as he cannot be made to deliver what he actually sold."

Bright Future For Oak Ridge.

Greensboro.—People of this city who attended the picnic dinner, cornerstone laying and stockholders' meeting at Oak Ridge recently are very enthusiastic over the prospects of the institution. A board of 35 directors was elected and these will choose officers of the institution. G. W. Armfield of this city has been given the contract for the rebuilding of the main hall and says that he will have it completed between the middle of September and the first of October. The new building will be 14x72 feet and will be modern in every respect. It is estimated that it will cost $35,000. The first floor will be used for recreation rooms and the upper floor for society halls and auditorium.

Stockville Postoffice Burns.

Asheville.—Postal Inspector C. M. Setzer received a message from Stockville telling of the destruction of the building used as a postoffice by fire. A mercantile firm conducted its business in the building. No cause is assigned for the blaze.

Delivers 13 Prisoners.

Raleigh.—United States Marshall W. T. Dorch has gone to Atlanta to deliver to the Federal Prison there 13 prisoners who were given terms during court for the past week. Most of the prisoners were blockaders and retailers and Johnston County the most notable prisoner was David Allen Lee of Johnston, who serves five years for changing a $2 bill to a $20 bill and for "white-capping" by shooting up the home of a neighbor, who he suspected reporting him.

Inspecting Asheville.

Asheville.—E. W. Thornton of Raleigh, representing the State Department of Agriculture, is an Asheville visitor for several days making an inspection of the local restaurants, drug stores, grocery stores and other places at which foodstuffs are sold. He is preparing a report for submission to the aldermen dealing with the manner in which the pure food laws are observed here. In view of the stringent regulations of the local health department it is believed he will give Asheville a good stand.

Open Playground.

Salisbury.—Salisbury's first public playground was opened recently. It is located at the Chestnut Hill public school and will be conducted along the lines of public playgrounds in larger cities. There are at present a number of things for the enjoyment of the young such as playground ball and volley ball courts, swings, seesaws, etc. The playground is made possible through efforts of the Boys Community Y. M. C. A. and is supported by contributions from the civic league and others.
