JAPAN DECLARES WAR ON GERMANY

MIKADO ISSUES PROCLAMATION CALLING SUBJECTS TO STAND BY COLORS.

APPEAL TO ARMS IS LAST GO

Note From Japan Was Ignored by Berlin and Kiao-Chow Has Been Prepared to Stand Siege.

Tokio.—The Emperor of Japan has declared war on Germany. This action was taken at the expiration of the time limit of Japan's ultimatum to Germany demanding the surrender of Kiao-Chow. The Japanese Government has ordered the beginning of operations on land and sea.

The Imperial rescript declaring war on Germany was issued in the evening. It officially inaugurates hostilities in the Far East as a result of Germany's failure to reply to the Japanese ultimatum.

The proclamation of the Emperor sent a thrill through the country. Japan's entrance upon the fulfillment of her obligations to her ally, Great Britain, responds to the popular will from one end of the land to the other.

Count Von Rex, the German ambassador, has been handed his passports. He probably will leave for America. George W. Guthrie, the American ambassador, will represent Germany. The Diet has been convened in special session for September 3.

The Austrian cruiser Kaiserin Elizabeth, which latterly was at Tsing Tau, the seaport of Kiao-Chow, is reported to have sailed. She perhaps will go to a neutral port and disarm.

It is believed this action will keep Austria out of the war in the Orient, although unforeseen circumstances may force Japan to change this policy.

No action has been taken relative to Austria and the Foreign Office has explained that Japan will remain friendly until Austria adopts an attitude which it regards as offensive.

It is reported here that Germany has been trying to transfer the German Railroad in Shan Tung, China, to America. Tokio believes, however, that the United States pursuing the policy of neutrality outlined by President Wilson, will not accept.

President Wilson's announcement of neutrality has greatly pleased the Japanese.

THE BIG BATTLE HAS BEGUN.
Allied Armies Battle With Germans Along Twenty-Mile Line.

London.—After nearly three weeks of mobilizing the battle of giants has begun.

Roughly speaking the Germans are trying to work around the allies' flank in Belgium while the French are attempting to apply the same process to the Germans in Alsace.

Almost all the encounters that have come before have been mere reconnaissances. The defeat of a regiment here and there has been proclaimed as a great victory but the grapple of hundreds of thousands of men in these affairs have had no significance.

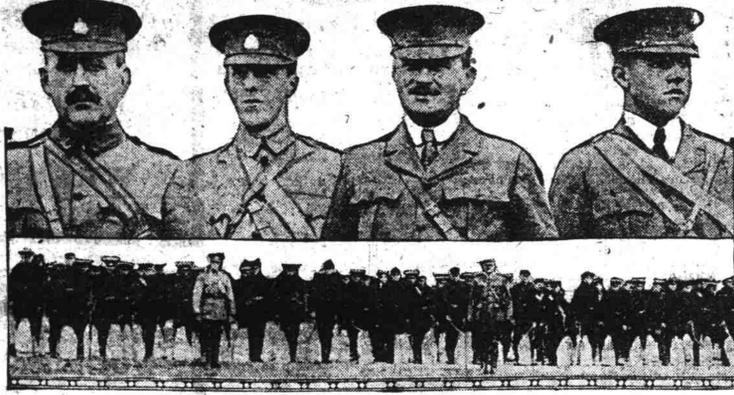

Official announcements from both sides have been extremely candid so far. From the standpoint of the allies the important feature in Saturday's developments is the great battle which began in the morning on the Namur-Charleroi line.

It is being fought on the position chosen by the allies.

A German official statement says that troops under command of the Crown Prince of Bavaria, fighting between Metz and Vosges, took 10,000 prisoners and 50 guns. It adds that the French troops opposing the Germans comprised eight army corps.

An official British statement explains calmly that nothing resembling a great battle has been fought as yet and warns the people against optimism.

CANADA SENDS HER BEST TO AID OLD COUNTRY

The response to the call for Canadian volunteers for service with the English army was such that the 25,000 men required could be picked from any three of the Dominion's nine military divisions. The illustration shows (below) members of the Halifax Rifles, the first mustered in, and (above) four of their officers, left to right, Captain Logan, Lieutenant Dennis, Captain Clarke and Lieutenant Jones.

GERMANS OCCUPY BRUSSELS AT LAST

ONLY OUTPOST FIGHTING IS OCCURRING ON THE BATTLE LINE.

BELGIUM CAPITAL FALLEN

Reports Do Not Cover Casualties Before City Falls—Price of Food is Declining Now.

London.—The Germans have at last occupied Brussels but in Alsace they seem to be making no advance. The latest report is that the French have recaptured Muelhausen and it still seems true that after 18 days of fighting there are no German troops on French soil.

On Germany's Eastern frontier there has been considerable outpost fighting which would indicate that the Russians are completing their work of concentration. There have been no serious collisions in this region as yet, however. Austria is too much engaged with Russia and with need of helping Germany to make much progress in her campaign against Serbia.

No news whatever has been received of any naval movements, either in the North Sea or the Mediterranean.

The death of Pope Pius will be made the occasion for another effort to bring about peace. It is stated that when the conclave meets in Rome to elect a new pope it will send an appeal to the warring nations for peace and will ask the United States to aid in bringing about tranquility.

According to the few bits of news allowed to come in from Berlin something like normal conditions prevail in the German capital. The price of food is declining and now that troop movements have been completed a resumption of general work on railways is beginning.

Confirmation has been received on the report that Emperor William has ordered assistance to be given to Japan may make to seize Kiso-Chow.

CARRANZA ENTERS CAPITAL

Mexico City.—Gen. Venustiano Carranza, supreme chief of the Mexican revolution and now Provisional President of the Republic, entered the Capital.

It is estimated that more than 150,000 persons crowded the line of march of the new President and his followers, which extended from the National Palace, six miles. There was no disorder as General Carranza and his staff passed through the cheering crowds, which showered them with flowers and confetti and from which came cries of "long live Carranza; long live the Constitutional Government."

Japan Explains Stand.
Washington.—Interference by German cruisers with the shipping of Japanese goods in German bottoms and the consequent grave dislocation of Japanese trade are the principal reasons set forth by Japan in explaining the ultimatum delivered to Germany recently.

Cable dispatches have contained a brief outline of the Japanese grievances, but the full text of the Japanese foreign office's statement on this subject was not available until today.

Ships Carry Small Cargoes.
New York.—A steamer which sailed out of New York for England ports these days sails light, though England is begging for food. The liner Celtic left with 5,000 tons of foodstuffs in hold when she might have carried 16,000 tons.

The Kronstadt left the other day with 1,500 and room for 8,000 more. The Adriatic, St. Paul, New York, Philadelphia, and others of the 13 ships of the International Mercantile Marine which departed for England since the war started, have carried light cargoes.

BIG BATTLE RAGES NEWS IS BOTTLED

PRACTICALLY IMPOSSIBLE TO GET ANY NEWS AWAY FROM BRUSSELS.

LITTLE CHANGE IN ALSACE

French Cavalry Have Successful Encounter With Germans at Florenville—Germans Crossing Meuse.

London.—Dispatches from Brussels announce that the British, French and Russian Ministers, with their staffs, have left for Antwerp.

The Brussels correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says it is becoming practically impossible to get news away from Brussels as the censor forbids information concerning troop movements being published. However, it is certain that a tremendous battle is in progress within the area stretching from Diest and Tirlemont, as far as Givet.

The general impression here is that no effort will be made to concentrate for the defense of Brussels as the attacking Germans would not be of sufficient strength to warrant such concentration.

Paris.—The following official statement was given out: "Latest advices are to the effect that the French Army has reached Morhange (Morchingen) in Alsace-Lorraine, 19 miles southeast of Metz. Our advance was very rapid in the afternoon beyond the river Seltz. At the end of the day we reached Delme, on one side, and Morhange on the other.

"There is little change in the situation in Upper Alsace. We continue to advance in Vosges. The Germans have retaken the village of Ville. Our troops have occupied Chateau Salins and Dieuze, but face well fortified and strongly held positions.

"Our cavalry has had a successful encounter with the Germans at Florenville, Belgium. Large German forces, it is announced, are crossing the Meuse between Liege and Namur.

"One of the French brigadiers has asked the commander-in-chief to make public the following facts: "A French Hussar made prisoner, was dragged by German soldiers into an Alsatian village and his throat cut out before the villagers, who testify to the deed."

Pope Pius X is Dead.
Rome.—The Pope's death occurred at 1:30 o'clock in the morning.

Grief over the war in Europe caused the Pope much depression from the first outbreak and several days ago symptoms appeared of the old bronchial affection from which the Pontiff had suffered in times past.

Hoke Smith Carries Georgia.
Atlanta, Ga.—Complete and indisputable returns from a majority of the counties of Georgia at a late hour at night indicated that United States Senator Hoke Smith has been nominated for re-election to the Senate over his opponent, former Governor Joseph M. Brown, by an overwhelming majority in the statewide Democratic primary.

Nomination is equivalent to election. Fulton county, in which Atlanta is located, was carried by Smith by more than 6,000 majority.

German Ship Escaped.
New York.—The German bark Matador, on the seas since July 29, a war prize worth almost $400,000 eluded all warships and tied up in dock here for a week or more after the declaration of war, her officers knew nothing of it and steered their craft for Bremen, unconscious of their risk of capture.

Engagement Reported.
Brussels.—An engagement is reported to have taken place in North-Hainburg. An important Franco-German battle is expected.

Only Slight Check.
Rotterdam, via London.—The Cologne Gazette asserts that the advance of the German troops, while slow, has not been seriously checked anywhere.

TROOPS IN FRANCE NO EXCITEMENT

LONDON NOT EXCITED OVER ARRIVAL OF BRITISH TROOPS IN FRANCE.

STOCK EXCHANGE IS CLOSED

All Foods in London Except Sugar Come Down—General Routine is Little Disturbed.

London.—London displayed little excitement when it became known that British troops were in France. There were no crowds around the bulletins and no rush for newspapers. There was a stolid, restrained earnestness in parks where recruits drill and at the barracks where trained soldiers go through evolutions.

The general routine is little disturbed, except for the unceasing movement through the streets of troops, ammunition trains and hospital corps. Tailors and saddlers are rushed with business. The sign "Swords and Bayonets sharpened" appears in the cutler's windows. No women or children weep as the troops depart.

Attendance at music halls and theaters shows no diminution and many Americans spend afternoons or evenings at the playhouses. "Britannia Rules the Waves" the "Marseillaise" and the Russian "National Anthem" are played by orchestras, the audiences standing.

As one Highlander regiment went through the Strand, a panic among the crowd was instigated by a sign "Swords and Bayonets sharpened" appears in the cutler's windows. No women or children weep as the troops depart.

Private homes have been converted into hospitals and newspaper departments under the head of "What Women Can Do" or some similar caption are the busiest.

Secretary for War, needs 100,000 men for three years or to the close of the war.

There has been some protest against German and Austrian waiters at the hotels and restaurants. One newspaper protests against executive forbearing as instanced by a crowd at the railway station on the departure of the Austrian Ambassador Singer "Deutschland, Deutschland Uber Alles."

The stock exchange is closed and the Alsatian village and his throat cut out before the villagers, who testify to the deed."

The newspapers are proud of the effective manner in which they kept secret the movement of troops of which much has been surmised, but little known.

Cargoes of grain on German vessels captured in the Baltic were sold and brought current prices, but the effect was a fall in price and especially in maize.

Great Battle Not Begun.
London.—As far as the cordon of secrecy which the battling nations have drawn around the Franco-German frontiers will permit of guess work, the great battle which promises to cast Mukden and Liao-Yang into insignificance has not actually begun. Encounters which military historians a month from now may describe as "reconnaissance in force" are proceeding along the border. They are heralded by both sides as battles and victories. In history most of them will rank as incidents.

Liege remains the crux of the controversy. The German government has announced that the forts have been destroyed and the defenders buried beneath their ruins. The French government declares the forts are holding out.

From Brussels comes word that the German movement toward the center has been checked, while from the French embassy in London the statement has been issued that the Germans have retired from the important Alsatian outpost of Sarrebourg.

German Charge Comments.
Washington.—Haniel Von Hamhausen, charge of the German embassy here, commenting on the president's appeal to Americans for neutrality, said: "I suppose one of the president's reasons was the anti-German feeling which has been shown in some of the papers. I think it is a very good expression and a right one. The Japanese ambassador and Charge Barclay of the British embassy declined to comment. No officials are at the Austrian, Russian or French embassies now."

GERMANS CUT OFF FRIENDLY NATIONS

FRENCH AND BELGIAN ALLIES ARE SEPARATED BY ARMY OF KAISER.

APPARENTLY BIG BATTLE

Brussels Levied For $400,000.—Hold French Checked and Engage 150,000 Belgians.

London.—Little has become known of the operations which put the German army between the Belgian forces and their French allies and enabled the Kaiser to occupy Brussels.

It is believed the Germans brought up strong forces behind their cavalry screens and that a severe battle must have been fought to compel the Belgians to abandon Brussels and retire to Antwerp.

Whether the French forces were engaged with the Belgians is not known.

No information is available as to whether the Germans intend to devote themselves to reducing Antwerp or to an endeavor to force their way southward into France.

It seems, however, that the determination is to attack the Belgian army of 150,000 men, who still are in or around Antwerp. The Germans already are advancing in the direction of Ghent. They have occupied Aost, 15 miles northwest of Brussels and Western, eight miles southeast of Ghent and apparently intend to overrun the whole of Northern Belgium to the sea.

Cavalry patrols have been as far as Mechlin (Malines), 24 miles southeast of Antwerp and it may be heard before long that the Germans have occupied Ghent and Bruges and possibly even Ostend. If this is their decision, however, a clear invasion of France through Belgium must be much longer delayed.

The German general has imposed a war tax of $400,000 on the city of Brussels.

GERMAN CANNONS CAPTURED.

Summary of Cannon Captured by French up to Present.

London.—In a dispatch from Paris the Exchange Telegraph Company's correspondent sends the following summary of alleged German losses as printed in The Paris Matin: "Twenty-four cannon taken by the Belgians from the third to the fifth of August, at Liege.

"Three cannon taken by the French at Argennes, August 11.

"Six cannon taken by the French at Othain, near Spincourt, August 12.

"Twelve cannon taken by the French near Schirmeck, Alsace, August 12.

"Twenty-four cannon taken by the Russians at Stallapohenen, East Prussia, August 17.

"Twelve cannon taken at Gumbinnen by the Russians, East Prussia, August 17.

"Besides these pieces of field artillery, rapid-fire guns, aeroplanes and 19 motor wagons were captured."

New York in Darkness.
New York.—For nearly half an hour New York was as dark as at night while it was visited by one of the most severe electrical storms in its history. One death, a panic among 2,000 bathers in a pavilion struck by lightning and injury to seven persons caught in the path of a Broadway runaway sums up the known casualties.

Italy Asks Explanation.
London.—The Rome correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company says: "Italy has asked for a friendly explanation from Austria regarding the landing of a large shipment of Austrian arms at Medua, an Albanian seaport, August 15. The Serbian minister, who protested to Italy, charged that the Albanians were arming the Albanians against Serbia."

Checked German Cavalry.
London.—The Central News has received a dispatch from Paris saying that French forces defeated a detachment of German cavalry coming from Leopoldsdorf and Huesingen in an engagement near Basel. The Germans were in the direction of St. Louis leaving 500 dead and wounded on the field. They lost most of their horses.

RUSSIAN TROOPS OFF FOR THE FRONT

RUSSIAN TROOPS OFF FOR THE FRONT

International News Service.

Vienna.—The great and cruel war that now bids fair to devastate and impoverish all Europe was directly, though not primarily, caused by Austria-Hungary's declaration of war against Serbia. Slavonic Russia came to the aid of the Slavs of Serbia and Germany took her place beside Austria. This brought about a clash of the triple alliance and the triple entente and France and England were drawn in.

The real "last straw" of the great conflict, therefore, that "broke the camel's back" of the peace of Europe was the manifesto of the Emperor Joseph of Austria-Hungary. For the first time this edict is here with given in full, as the ruler of the dual monarchy wrote it:

"I have resolved to instruct the ministers of my household and foreign affairs to notify the royal Serbian government of the beginning of a state of war between the monarchy and Serbia. In this fateful hour I feel the need of turning to my beloved people. I command you, therefore, to publish the inclosed manifesto.

Manifesto.
To My People: It was my fervent wish to consecrate the years, which, by the grace of God, still remain to me, to the words of peace and to protect my peoples from the heavy sacrifices and burdens of war. Providence, in its wisdom, has otherwise decreed. The intrigues of a malevolent opponent compelled me, in the defense of the honor of my monarchy, for the protection of its dignity, and its position as a power for the security of its possessions, to grasp the sword after long years of peace. With a quickly forgetful ingratitude, the king of Serbia, which, from the first beginnings of its independence as a state until quite recently, has been supported and assisted by my ancestors, has for years trodden the path of open hostility to Austria-Hungary.

When, after three decades of fruitful work for peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina, I extended my sovereign rights to those lands, my decree called forth in the kingdom of Serbia, whose rights were in no wise injured, outbreaks of unrestrained passion and the bitterest hate. My government at that time employed the handsome privileges of the stronger, and with extreme consideration and leniency only requested Serbia to reduce her rights to those lands, my decree called forth in the kingdom of Serbia, whose rights were in no wise injured, outbreaks of unrestrained passion and the bitterest hate.
