EASY PICTURE-TAKING.

Some hesitate to buy a camera because they believe that picture-taking is an art difficult to acquire. The opposite is true. The perfected cameras and camera supplies we can make it easy for anybody to take good pictures. Little care is required, of course, but the instructions are so interesting.

We have low and medium priced cameras that do practically as good work as the expensive ones. Chances are we can supply you with a complete outfit for less than you would expect the camera alone to cost. We charge nothing for instructing you.

There's Room For Success

In The Great Southwest.

Have you ever considered the great advantage of this feature of the Southwest—plenty of elbow room—where three, five, even ten acres may be had at the price of a single acre in your home section? It's worth considering, especially when the great productive worth of the land is taken into account. It's a wonderfully fertile section. There is no better agricultural section in this country, and farms are cheap out there—in Arkansas, Oklahoma and Texas—simply because there are more farms than farmers. Can you afford to overlook an opportunity of this kind? Our illustrated booklets will give you the particulars in detail. If not interested yourself write for them anyway in behalf of your less favored relatives and neighbors.

A Great Harvest of The "Murphies"

The Irish potato harvest is now at its zenith in the section east of here, extending from Mildred to Washington and Plymouth. Tuesday of this week there passed through here 125 cars loaded with potatoes, each containing 150 barrels. Washington is the largest shipping station. That day 37 carloads were shipped. When it is considered that these esculents will sell for $3 and $5 per barrel the importance of this crop from a money point of view will be apparent. The 125 cars of "Murphies" were worth approximately $75,000.

A STRONG HEART

is assured by perfect digestion. Indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, takes the strain off the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function naturally. Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and appropriate to the blood and tissues all of the food nutriment. Tones the stomach and digestive organs. Sold by W. H. Macnair.

July 10-Story Book.

Delightfully cooling and suggestive of shady hammocks is July 10-Story Book, now at hand. The cover, as usual, is a departure and, while not pretentious, is a decided novelty. A list of stories particularly adapted for summer reading is offered. The Hon. Buck Hinrichsen of Illinois has an exquisite satire called "Hattie's Hatchet Crusade." It is in his own peculiar vein and inimitable. Other conceits of a lighter cast are by Julia Truitt Bishop and Kennett Harris, both well known to the literary world. In a leap to the other extreme is a terrible story of revenge called "The Spell of the Hooded Cobras," by Symmes M. Jelly. The author, whose name seems unfamiliar, is an artist in making us shudder. "Bertie's Affair at the Lyceum," is a clever combination of love and things theatrical, by Ellis Holdom. J. C. Plummer's "500 in Trust," as a nautical tale, is one of his best. The selected masterpiece is an oriental conceit by Grant Allen, who made a hit a few years since with the novel "The Woman Who Did".

A Turkey Story.

There are turkey stories as well as fish stories, if anyone should ask you, and N. P. Bullock (Dock) tells the following and vows that it is true:

A few days ago he was not far from Doehead, near the old race track back of the Sessum field, when he saw ahead of him two wild turkey gobblers fighting. Mr. Bullock stepped out into the bushes and crept along till he was opposite the fighting fowls. So intent were they in their contest that he was not heard. With a stealthy step he advanced till he was almost upon them and then he made a spring and caught the two by the neck one in each hand.

Then ensued a battle between man and bird. With wings and feet the latter fought, scratching Mr. Bullock's arms and tearing his clothing. With much difficulty one bird was carried to the ground, where its head was crushed by the man's foot, while the other maintained its desperate scratching with feet and striking with wing. The first one disposed of the other soon fell an easy victim.

Mr. Bullock says that he had no idea how strong a turkey was before. The two turkeys were grown gobblers with beards nearly three inches long.

—Col. Zoeller now seems to be confident that the backbone of winter has been broken.
