GEORGIA NOT A TEST. (F. H. C.)

The results of the primaries and the convention in Georgia cannot be accepted as a true test of the strength of the Wilson administration.

Smith and Watson, each, have a large personal following within the state, and Georgia, being a solid Democratic state, was not fighting so much over political issues as over candidates.

To treat the situation candidly, it must be admitted that these possibly is an element within the party that is not entirely satisfied with the Wilson way of doing things—and this element undoubtedly manifested itself in the net results.

But there are two outstanding considerations: First: The two local candidates have their own friends and organizations which, of course, polled a tremendous vote for them.

Second: Mr. Palmer proved a very unpopular champion of the administration. His pretensions were great and his words sounded wonderful, but the people too easily saw through his camouflage of self-acclaimed righteousness and they did not believe that his mantle was that of the administration.

The way in which Mr. Palmer has handled the department of justice has not met with universal approval. He may be doing as well as anyone could under the circumstances. However, he does not measure up to Wilson. When he goes before the people asking them to ride him into power on the Wilson accomplishments, and cloaking himself in Wilson attributes, he is at once accepted as presumptuous and as over-estimating his ability.

Indeed, his position before the people might be described as almost asinine.

No, Georgia was not a test.

MACHINES FOR HARD WORK.

The saying that "necessity is the mother of invention" was never truer than it is today. Heretofore the United States has depended upon Europe for its supply of unskilled labor to do the hard manual work connected with mining, coke-making, ditch-digging, railroad grading and track-laying, and to some extent farming.

The first year in which more than a million immigrants were admitted was in 1905, when 1,026,459 arrived. In 1913 and 1914, the two years immediately preceding the war, a total of 2,416,372 arrived. The total for 1915, 1919 and 1917 was only 920,929.

Not only has the supply of unskilled labor fallen much below the average during the last five years, but there have been within this period two developments which have absorbed the domestic supply of both skilled and unskilled labor into virtually new fields. One of these is connected with the automobile industry and the other the moving picture business.

er from a box, place a product there-in, place the cover back, label the cover of the box, fold a circular, place the same around the box and fasten the container securely. Many even more marvelous inventions are reported ready to take the place of human hands, and do the work more perfectly and in greater volume, and all without a glance at the clock or a stop to powder its nose or rearrange its back hair.

A woman writer indignantly denies that her sex bedecks themselves in finery to attract men. Possibly she is right—it may be fore the sole purpose of making other women jealous.

During the war many city people cultivated their back yards to be patriotic or faddish. Now they are glad to do it as an aid to three eats a day.

GARDNER THE FRIEND OF ALL PEOPLE

O. MAX GARDNER For Governor

Saturday, June 5, is the day set by the Democrats of North Carolina for the selection of a candidate for governor. Lieutenant Governor O. Max Gardner is a candidate for the nomination. In asking the support of the citizens of the state, Mr. Gardner stands upon the platform of fitness and his friends commend him as being, by training and experience, equipped for the position.

Max Gardner is a self-made man, started life without means, worked hard to secure an education and graduated at the A. & M. Later he studied law and graduated at the State University.

Having worked on the farm and in the cotton mill, Max Gardner is in hearty sympathy with the workers and desires to aid in the advancement of the people of the farms and factories of this state. A practical farmer, he has applied the principles studied at the A. & M. to his farm in Cleveland county and has been successful. With years of experience in business affairs, he will be able to lead the state in an economical administration of the state business.

UNFETTERED.

Max Gardner has refused repeatedly to make any pledges or promises to either organizations or individuals. Some leaders of Organized Labor are fighting Gardner bitterly because he would not make any pledges to that organization. Max Gardner proposes to serve all the people, if nominated and elected, and will not be tied to any previous promises.

ENDORSEMENTS.

Max Gardner has a great number of friends in all sections of the state. Hundreds have written letters endorsing his candidacy. There is no room here to print them all. But the endorsement of two men—both former governors are of interest.

FORMER GOVERNOR KITCHIN SAYS

"I favor Max Gardner for governor of North Carolina. He has public spirit, ability, personality and character. He has strength, vigor and courage. His activity in council and on the hustings for Democratic principles has been long and effective. His opinions, conduct and history have given him a statewide popularity. His service as legislator and Lieutenant-Governor has been patriotic and faithful. His record, his qualities and his attainments assure to the people of this state an honest, useful and successful administration as governor."

FORMER GOVERNOR GLENN SAYS

"If Gardner is nominated and elected, I vote for him. He will, in the discharge of the duties of the office, know no man, no color, no creed, no party, but will treat all alike, doing equal justice to all rich and poor, high and low, friend and foe. A splendid speaker, a diligent student, a practical farmer, a leader of experience, a successful business man, an able lawyer, a strong and patriotic citizen, and above all, an upright Christian gentleman, he ought to win, and for these reasons and many others I will vote for Gardner, work for Gardner and do all I can, in an honorable way to help make him the next governor of North Carolina."

SOME OTHER LETTERS.

Mr. R. M. Gidney, farm demonstrator and agent for Cleveland county, is certainly well informed concerning the standing of Cleveland county farmers. Mr. Gidney says:

"During the past six years I have become acquainted with the farming activities of Hon. O. Max Gardner. For four years I have been co-operating with him in farm work. Mr. Gardner is one of the largest and most efficient farmers in Cleveland county. He has not only made a success of farming but his interest in better farming methods and his activity along this line, have inspired many other farmers and caused them to succeed. The height of Mr. Gardner's ambition is to promote the agricultural interest of his county."

Mr. Ambrose M. McWhirter, a man of high character, who is a weaver and loom fixer, employed by the Ila Manufacturing Company, of Shelby, and one of the most prominent textile workers in Cleveland county, writing of O. Max Gardner, says:

"If there is an industrial laborer in Cleveland county, who is a Democrat and is not for Mr. Gardner, I have never heard of him. We all know Mr. Gardner and he knows us. We all trust Mr. Gardner and believe in him. He is a fair and square man and we who know him would trust his judgment to the limit on any question between right and wrong. He knows what is right and does it. He has helped personally more tenants and poor men to buy homes than any man in the county. I can safely say that practically all of the cotton mill workers in this section are going to vote and work for Mr. Gardner for governor. He believes in and practices the Golden Rule."

Hon. George A. Holderness, Tarboro, chairman of the appropriations committee of the state senate, farmer leading live stock raiser, banker and broad-visioned citizen, says:

"After deliberate consideration of the claims of the candidates for the Democratic nomination for governor, and adverted to the claims of other candidates, I am firmly convinced that Hon. O. Max Gardner will give North Carolina better service as governor than any other candidate—therefore I am supporting Max Gardner for governor. Max Gardner has made a record, in youth, in college, in private life and in public life that commands not only my support, but that of every voter."

"Gardner combines the rare qualities of a scientific and practical farmer, sound business judgment and seasoned legislative experience. His record in both private and public life appeals to me and should appeal to every voter. I am firmly convinced that if elected he will prove an able governor."

Mr. Albert Escott, Editor Mill News, Charlotte, one of those most interested in the welfare of the workers in the cotton mills of the Carolinas, in a letter to the workers says:

"I wish to testify to my knowledge of the fitness of Hon. O. Max Gardner for governor of this state. He has recovered his vigor. He has a big, powerful body, a resourceful mind, and a well-known integrity of character, all of which would make him a great governor of all the people."

"My paper is non-political, but my personal vote, will be for Gardner. I hope yours will be too."

IN CONCLUSION.

Max Gardner is clean, honest, straight. Max Gardner believes in the application of the Golden Rule to the affairs of community, section, state. Max Gardner seeks this office on the ground of merit. He is not allied with any political or party faction, but seeks the support of the virile manhood of the state, whose hope is the successful development of North Carolina, in this new day of opportunity. Max Gardner's friends appeal to men of every class and every section to look ahead rather than backward at this crucial hour."

Repair The Wear Hard Work Often Breaks Down a Person's Health and Creates a Need for Ziron Iron Tonic.

MEN and women who do hard labor, such as building, farming or housekeeping, and those who do exhaustive brain work of various kinds, often feel the need of something to help renew fagged forces and tone up the system. To help repair the wear caused by over-work, to gain renewed strength and energy, many have obtained good results from taking Ziron Iron Tonic. Ziron is a perfected preparation of the medicinal iron salts, combined with other valuable strength-giving

Maxwell Driving Ease in a MAXWELL is Due to Special Steels. Many who drive a Maxwell prefer it to a larger car. They like its nimbleness, its quickness in getting under way, its peculiar ability to thread its way through traffic, its rare driving ease. One can drive it farther in a day with less fatigue than many cars much larger. The reason is clear: its engine pulls no superfluous weight. Not a single unnecessary pound burdens it. Special steels in a Maxwell eliminate the useless weight—steels made to Maxwell's own formulae, which equal pound for pound those in any car built. They have extra strength forged into them, and they provide lightness. This is one reason why Maxwell has won public favor the world over as indicated by nearly 400,000 now in use. How marked the tendency today is recorded by a production of 100,000 for 1920. J. P. SUGG, DEALER Tarboro, North Carolina

CONSTIPATION And Sour Stomach Caused This Lady Much Suffering. Black-Draught Relieved. Meadorsville, Ky.—Mrs. Pearl Patrick, of this place, writes: "I was very constipated. I had sour stomach and was so uncomfortable. I went to the doctor. He gave me some pills. They weakened me and seemed to tear up my digestion. They would gripe me and afterwards it seemed I was more constipated than before. I heard of Black-Draught and decided to try it. I found it just what I needed. It was an easy laxative, and had no bad effects. My digestion soon improved. I got well of the sour stomach, my bowels soon seemed normal, no more griping, and I would take a dose now and then, and was in good shape. I cannot say too much for Black-Draught for it is the finest laxative one can use."
