

—Pembroke Oxford—

MOST men like to wear white shirts—many wear nothing else. This Pembroke Oxford is a beauty—a closely woven mercerized fabric. It may look like the tshirt you bought somewhere and had to give to your small brother after a few washings. But it is not that kind. It's an Eagle Shirt. With collar attached if you prefer

Scotland Neck Hits Freely.

Scotland Neck, June 17.—Scotland Neck defeated Tarboro here yesterday afternoon in a fast and interesting contest, 8 to 3, in which the local hit freely and were able to bunch hits at opportune moments.

The game was featured by several excellent plays on both sides, but the visitors were unable to hit opportunely, which was accountable for their defeat.

Washington Wins Easily.

Pinetops, June 17.—Washington defeated the local club in the first encounter of the season here yesterday, 14 to 3. The visitors simply outset the locals at every part of the game, and were able to bunch hits when hits meant runs.

Greenville Wins Close Game.

Williamston, June 17.—Greenville defeated Williamston here yesterday, 4 to 3. The game was hotly contested in every part, but Sheppard, for the visitors, held the locals to 3 hits and pitched splendidly in pinch.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Tar Heels Defeat Tars.

Rocky Mount, June 17.—Taking a double bill yesterday, Rocky Mount made a clean sweep of the series with Norfolk, winning the first one 3 to 2 and the nightcap 3 to 0.

Colts Romp At Will.

Wilson, June 17.—The Colts yesterday romped at will and took the large end of the series by the score of 12 to 1. They drove Meehan out in the first and pounded Messers' offerings to all corners of the lot, while Stone held the locals safe at all times. Gooch was the batting star getting five safeties out of five trips to the plate, one of these a three-bagger.

Cats Outplay Truckers.

Suffolk, Va., June 17.—Outhit, out pitched and outfielded, the Portsmouth team lost yesterday to Suffolk, 7 to 1. Big Si Pierce for the locals put over a steady effective game and aided by the team work of his mates, had no trouble after the first inning. McLoughlin was yanked in the sixth, and Post, center fielder, was put in to finish the game.
