MOST men like to wear white shirts—many wear nothing else. This Pembroke Oxford is a beauty—a closely woven mercerized fabric. It may look like the shirt you bought some where and had to give to your small brother after a few washings. But it is not that kind. It's an Eagle Shirt. With collar attached if you prefer

EASTERN CAROLINA.

Scotland Neck-Hobgood On Top.
Scotland Neck, June 19.—The Scotland Neck-Hobgood club defeated Greenville here yesterday, 10 to 2. Petway, for the locals, held the visitors to three hits and pitched fine ball in pinches. Both clubs fielded in excellent form, but the visitors' inability to hit at opportune moments was accountable for the victory by the locals. This makes six consecutive victories for the winners and places them on top.

The score: R. H. E.
Scotland Neck 10 11 3
Greenville 2 3 3

Williamston Wins First.

Williamston, June 19.—Williamston defeated the strong Pinetop aggregation here yesterday in the first contest of the season, 2 to 1. The game was possibly one of the tightest and best played that has taken place on the local diamond throughout the entire season. In fact, both clubs played clean ball, but were unable to hit when hits would have meant runs.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE.

Greensboro Wins by Free Hitting.
Greensboro, June 19.—The Capitals outthit the Patriots yesterday, but the locals' bingles came at more opportune moments, giving them the game by a score of 6 to 5.

Manager Ward, of Raleigh, protested the game, claiming that Dorsey should have been credited with home run in the eighth inning. The visitors' left fielder hit a terrific clout down the third base line in the eighth inning, but was thrown out at the plate. Ward claimed the ball went out of the umpire's sight. The run, if scored, would have tied the game.

Danville Wins Pitcher's Duel.
Danville, Va., June 19.—Danville secured a 1 to 0 victory yesterday in a ten-inning pitchers' duel between A. Moore of the locals and Joyner of High Point. Each pitcher was invincible until the tenth, when Dellinger singled, went to second on a field-er's choice, advanced another base, on Joyner's balk and scored when Biting fumbled Dehaney's grounder.

Bulls Emerge From Cellar.
Winston-Salem, June 19.—By defeating the Twins yesterday, 4 to 2, the Bulls climbed out of the cellar and forced Winston-Salem into last place. The game was a peculiar one.

The locals outthit the visitors, but six of the Twins' bingles were secured by the bottom end of the batting order. Neither Richardson nor Shumaker secured a hit and Lockardie's one blow came with no one on. Each of the three had opportunities to drive in runs, but seemed helpless before Nelson's pitching. Shubert, the local's new catcher, was the star of the game.

VIRGINIA LEAGUE.

Tar Heels Swamp Truckers.
Portsmouth, Va., June 19.—Rocky Mount captured the second game of the current series yesterday afternoon, winning from the Truckers, 10 to 4. The home club was clearly out-hit and outplayed throughout, the Carolinians nearly doubling the hits of Portsmouth and putting up flashy game in the field. Centerfielder Walker of the Tar Heels, had a perfect day at the bat, going up five times and hitting safely each time, and was also credited with a two-bagger.

Timely Hitting Wins For Tars.

Norfolk, Va., June 19.—Norfolk hit more opportunely and secured the lucky break in a pitcher's duel yesterday between Southpaw Terhune and Pitcher Robbins, by the score of 1 to 0. Faster support in pinches helped the southpaw to pull out in the lead.

Briebeck's single in the sixth, followed by Beale's perfect bunt and Henge's long single along the Lont Field line put across the winning run. The Wilson players kicked and claimed the ball was foul, but Umpire Westervelt declared the hit fair.

Colts Win Easily.

Richmond, June 19.—"Cy" Freid's desire to wind up in the first inning of yesterday's game enabled the locals to make it two straight from the Newport News Shipbuilders. The final score standing Richmond 5, Newport News 2. Jesse Baker crossed the plate for the first run of the game on an error, but Jim Poole took a good lead off third and stole home while the pitcher was making his delivery. Gooch duplicated Poole's trick when he reached third. Freid pitched well for the visitors and allowed only five hits, but the Builders failed to locate the offerings of Bacon and found him for only five safe blows during the game. The local hurler let the invaders down until the ninth inning, when they scored two runs.

LOCALS AND WASHINGTON PLAY TO 12-INNING TIE

The Tars and Washington played to a 12-inning tie yesterday at the fair grounds in spite of old man weather. It looked like rain would call a halt to the game at the end of the eighth, but there was nothing doing, and the two teams battled on to a 12-frame tie, when darkness forced an end to the game.

Both clubs had a pitched knocked out of the box. The locals started with J. Kilroy in the box, but were forced to call Champion to relieve him with only one man down for Washington. The same trick was pulled on Powell for the visitors, when with but one man out he was relieved by Jones.

Bird, playing at right field for the locals in his first game of the season here, won a home among the local fans when he hit the little pill for a homer in the eleventh. Austin for the visitors also had a good name here among the visiting fans, hitting for three bags in the first. Scores:

GOVERNOR BICKETT STRONG ON M'ADOO

Would Favor Tendering Nomination, Despite Refusal to Put Name Up.

Raleigh, June 19.—Governor T. W. Bickett, after reading the announcement of W. G. McAdoo, declaring that he could not permit his name to go before the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco for the Presidential nomination, today stated that he favored tendering the nomination to McAdoo anyway. The governor said he did not interpret McAdoo's letter as meaning he would decline the nomination if it were forced upon him, but that he understood the former secretary of the treasury to mean that he would not seek nor have his friends seek the nomination for him. Mr. Bickett further stated that he believed if the convention "reared up on its hind legs" and nominated McAdoo, he would accept.

Goobers Even Up Series.

Petersburg, June 19.—Petersburg came from behind yesterday in the sixth and evened the series with Suffolk, winning 5 to 3. The Cats hit Bennett hard throughout the game, but in only two innings did the visitors manage to cross the plate. Lea-

NOTICE TO WATER CONSUMERS.

At a regular meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Town of Tarboro, N. C., held on June the 14, a resolution was adopted carrying a 25 per cent increase in all water rates, effective July 1st, 1920, beginning of the 3rd quarter.
