

COMPLIMENTARY STREET DANCE FOR BASEBALL PLAYERS

Plant Afoot For Street Dance, Lawn Party and Carnival Monday Night.

PROMOTERS OF SCHEME TO MEE WEDNESDAY

Complimentary to the baseball boys and in order to close the national holiday, July 5, plans are on foot for a street dance, lawn party and carnival on Monday night, July 5. Last year Tarboro had a great Fourth of July celebration, and this year there would have been some interesting events but for the fact that the day comes on Sunday and for the fact that baseball is scheduled for morning and afternoon on Monday next, which will be kept as a holiday.

All those interested in making the night entertainment a success are asked to meet with the promoters of the reposition tomorrow, Wednesday morning, at 10 o'clock, in Mr. J. W. Umstead's office, over Fineman's music store.

The people of the town will be asked to give ice cream and cake. All those willing to contribute either or both will please phone Mrs. Tom Sanders.

AUSTRIA HAVING WAR OVER DAYLIGHT SAVING SCHEME

Vienna, June 29.—Austria is undergoing a revolution over summer (daylight saving) time. The law was enacted at the instigation of the foreign representatives to save fuel and over the protest of the agricultural regions. Recently Salzburg province issued a decree annulling it, now the Tyrol has followed suit while scattered communities and districts all over the country still use old time. It is resulting in endless confusion in train schedules where the lines cross provincial frontiers and in connections between main line trains and local.

STONE-DEAF EX-SERVICE MAN CAN READ LIPS

Washington, June 29.—Frank Solomon, a negro, during the war a private in Co. C, 534th engineers, is now studying tailoring under the supervision of the federal board for vocational education. He is stone deaf but such a remarkable lip-reader he can understand Mark Twain's "Huckleberry Finn," read aloud.

When he came back from France, he could neither speak, hear, read, nor write. At the army hospital at Cape May, N. J., a proficient teacher succeeded in making him recognize three words: "thimble," "box," and "watch." One day when shown a letter, he indicated that he wanted to write. He wrote one sentence: "Dear mother, I down com back from France."

When he could tell about himself, he revealed that his education consisted of one month's schooling at the age of fourteen. Now he can understand lip-reading, can read a simple history of the United States, and can do simple arithmetic examples.

DIED.

Sunday morning at Marganton, Mrs. Ruth Taylor, daughter of the late Sheriff Joseph Cobb of Edgecombe. Mrs. Taylor had many friends in Tarboro and throughout the county. She was 62 years of age.

SUMMER SCHOOL IN SECOND WEEK

Capacity Limit Only Cause For Attendance Not Being Much Larger.

Chapel Hill, June 29.—With attendance sweeping up to the 1200 mark, a limit fixed only by the capacity of the university to accommodate students, the 33d session of the university of North Carolina summer school swung into its second week facing a more varied activity than Chapel Hill has ever known in any one summer.

In addition to the more than 700 North Carolina teachers who are now studying courses in education and the 400 students taking regular college courses, a series of institutes has been announced lasting almost to the very opening of the university for the 126th session next fall. The public welfare institutes conducted jointly by the university and the southern division of the Red Cross for social workers of all kinds, will continue until September 13, the last two weeks consisting of field work away from Chapel Hill.

A special child welfare institute will be conducted July 5-10 under the auspices of the National Child Welfare Association, with Mrs. Ira D. Hasbrouch, field secretary of the association, in immediate charge. The commercial secretaries of North Carolina, secretaries of chambers of commerce, boards of trade, and other industrial and civic bodies, will hold an institute, August 9-14, the first of its kind in this state.

Overlapping the institute will come another, the community service institute, at which W. C. Crosby, secretary of the North Carolina community service bureau, will have his 40 field agents for a conference and discussion of their problems. At the same time the second meeting of the state and county council will be held, August 17-19, with representatives from many of the state and county departments which are closely connected, present for a rehashing on both sides of the difficulties of their work.

DIPLOMATIC CORPS TANGIER CAUTIOUS

Avoid Hurting Susceptibilities of French and Spaniards, Who Seek Control.

London, June 29.—How warily the diplomatic corps at Tangier has to walk to avoid hurting the susceptibilities of either the French or Spaniards, both of whom hope to control the future of that city, is shown by the experience of the British charge d'affaires when he decided to hold a reception there in honor of King George's birthday.

The British representative had up to that time, according to the Times correspondent, carefully avoided expressing any opinion as to the future of that city although every effort had been made to discover his views. Accordingly some suppressed emotion existed pending his decision whether the cakes for the party were to be supplied by French or Spanish pastry cooks.

After mature consideration he entrusted French cooks with the task of satisfying the appetites of his guests and Spanish musicians with that of charming their ears. Public opinion seems to have been satisfied.

McADOO STILL GAINS.

San Francisco, June 29.—Events, so far, have shown no marked reaction overnight on the discussion of nomination booms. It seemed that a general feeling of the prospect of McAdoo's selection was improved.

McAdoo's friends expect that he will run third in the early balloting, Cox second and Palmer first. They expect the ballot to head later for McAdoo.

CONGREGATIONALISTS MEET

Boston, June 29.—Congregationalists representing churches from all parts of the world are here today for the fourth decennial meeting of the International Congregational church.

ADMINISTRATION FORCES SEEM BE IN FULL CONTROL

The Threatened Anti-Administration Fight Collapses Without a Showing.

BRYAN IS NOT ON THE PLATFORM COMMITTEE

San Francisco, June 29.—The administration forces today entered the second day of the convention apparently in full control with Carter Glass as chairman of the resolutions committee; Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, another administration supporter, was chosen permanent chairman, and other administration men at the head of the other committees, was the line-up.

The threatened anti-administration fight, as far as related to the organization of the convention machinery, collapsed without a showing. William J. Bryan was not included in the sub-committee chosen to draft the platform.

The rules committee decided that nominating speeches should be made while the resolutions committee was working on the platform, but there should be no balloting until after the platform was adopted. This plan should save much time.

The administration control indicates that there is less prospect today of an open fight on the platform question on the convention floor, the administration leaders appearing confident that differences will be settled in the committee. The convention meets today at 1 o'clock.

AT LARGE 2 YEARS, NEGRO SURRENDER

Decides Life of the Hunted Is Not What It Was Cracked Up to Be.

Greenville, June 29.—This morning when the 8.20 Norfolk Southern passenger train arrived here a colored man by the name of Hollie Credle got off and seeing Policeman Whichard near walked up to him and said: "Boss, I want to give myself up. I see a escaped convict and I decided its better to give myself up then it is to be running from officers all over the country." Policeman Whichard took the man in charge and then went to the nearest telephone and called up the sheriff's office and told Deputy Sheriff what had happened. In consequence of this the deputy sheriff hastened to the station.

The negro stated that his name was Hollie Credle and was a native of Hyde county. Said that he was convicted in the Superior court of Hyde county for house-breaking and sentenced to the state prison for a term of ten years.

After serving 18 months of his sentence at the state farm at Tillery, Credle, according to his statement, succeeded in making his escape two years ago and since that time has been at large. He told the officers that he was tired of being sought after, that his life since his escape had been anything but pleasant and that instead of being on the run all the while he had made up his mind to give himself up and serve out the remainder of his sentence like a man. Said that he was charged with house-breaking and assault, but stated that he was innocent of the assault.

The negro is now in jail and the state authorities at Raleigh were notified today of his surrender.

GREEKS GAIN ON TURKS.

London, June 29.—Positions taken by the Greeks in their advance against the Turkish Nationalists from Smyrna are being consolidated and a forward movement stopped to permit this process.

REED DENIED SEAT.

San Francisco, June 29.—The credentials committee today denied a seat in the convention to Senator Reed, of Missouri. Clark Howell, and other delegates from Georgia pledged to Palmer, were seated.

There is no indication from the Reed forces as to their next move.

TODAY'S NEWS OF TARBORO 20 YEARS AGO

Married.

Last evening in Episcopal church at Lawrence, by Rev. E. W. Gamble, Claude Walker, of Richmond, and Miss Annie Lawrence. Mr. Curtis was at the organ.

The church and house were decorated in green and white. The refreshments were elegant and bountiful and the presents numerous, costly and very handsome.

The bridesmaids wore white organdies, the bride wore duchesse satin and real lace. Her veil was caught with a sunburst of diamonds, the gift of the groom. The groom was presented with a $1000 check from his father. They leave today on a one month's trip north.

The ceremony was pretty. George Pennington, of this place, and Hermann Roseman, of Richmond, were ushers. Little Misses Wingate and Shackelford were the sweet little flower girls. The waiters, or grooms, and bridesmaids came in by twos, the gentlemen first.

The bride will take rank anywhere as a woman of rare beauty and sweetness. She is a daughter of the late Dr. W. J. Lawrence and a great granddaughter of late Joshua Lawrence, elder in the Primitive Baptist church of the Kehukee Association.

The groom is one of the best families of the state and represents the American Tobacco Co., in Tarboro.

Numerous friends from here and elsewhere were out at Lawrence to wish the bride and groom happiness and all good, and in their wishes The Southerner joins most heartily.

N. Y. CITY NO MORE ALIEN ATTRACTION

Manufacturing Centers Swell Their Population With Immigrants.

New York, June 28.—Marked deflection of immigration from New York City to inland centers during the last year is given by immigration officials at Ellis Island as one explanation for the fact that this city's population was shown by the 1920 census to be only 5,621,121, instead of the 6,100,000 expected.

Rowe, official money changer for incoming aliens, asserted that money exchanged for immigrants whose destination is New York City, does not amount to one-hundredth part of the amount exchanged for those giving other points as their destination.

"In former years," said Mr. Rowe, "immigrants poured into New York City by the hundreds of thousands. They are now going to manufacturing centers such as Pittsburgh, Detroit and Akron, O., or to the coal and iron mining regions. We are exchanging a hundred times more money for aliens in transit than for those coming to New York City."

WITHHOLD STATEMENTS.

London, June 29.—No further statements relative to the inter-allied conference held at Boulogne will be made until after the allied German meeting at Spa, according to Premier Lloyd George.

COUNTERFEIT NOTE OUT.

Washington, June 29.—Warning of a new counterfeit $5 note of Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond was issued today by the treasury department.

PERSONALS

—Miss Bessie Brown, of Greenville, is the guest of Miss Emily Hart this week.

BEE SWARM ON STONE LION.

Berlin, June 29.—A colony of bees the other day swarmed in the gaping jaws of the big stone lion ornamenting the gateway of President Ebert's residence, which was formerly Bismarck's old townhouse and later the imperial court marshal's residence. The police guard drove them out with the garden hose.

HOSPITALS MAY BE FORCED TO CURTAIL THEIR OPERATIONS

Shortage of Nurses Causes Serious Handicap to Institutions of Country.

CAMPAIGN FOR NURSES PROVES TO BE FAILURE

Buffalo, N. Y., June 29.—Unless some remedy is found for the acute shortage of nurses, many hospitals of the country will be compelled to curtail their operations, asserts Mrs. Annie L. Hansen, superintendent of the Buffalo District Nursing Association, in her annual report today.

A recent campaign to induce more young women to take up the profession of nursing was a failure, Mrs. Hansen said, and as a result one Buffalo institution was compelled to close one of its departments.

"Hospital training schools of the United States have reached a high state of efficiency and new hospitals and new systems for nursing the sick in their homes are arising everywhere but the necessary pupils fail to appear," Mrs. Hansen said. "The country needs another Florence Nightingale."

ATLANTA HOLDS OWN.

Washington, June 29.—Atlanta, with 200,616 people, retains its place as the second largest city of the south. The figures for Birmingham were announced today, showing the Alabama city has 178,270, an increase of more than 45,000. Birmingham retains third place. New Orleans is first, with 387,408.

PLATFORM WAITS UPON COMMITTEE

Platform Committee Hold An Open House to Hear Suggestions Made.

San Francisco, June 29.—The actual preparation of the Democratic platform waited today while the platform committee kept open house to hear the final suggestions and arguments from many sources. The labor, liquor and Irish questions were up for debate at the public hearings. Also many speakers on issues of lesser controversy, and there seemed to be little prospect that the long list will be finished until late in the day.

Whether a combination of opposing forces can be accomplished to stem the tide of the administration success has not yet been revealed. Close observers would not be surprised to see the next move a definite trend toward some particular candidate for the presidential nomination. While the administration forces worked in concert to control the machinery of the convention there is no assurance that a community of interest among them will continue when the balloting has reached the end of the preliminary stage of complimentary voting. Many believe there will be no definite drift of the presidential sentiment until after the platform is adopted. All delegates are expectant as to whether the nominating speeches will be reached today or tonight.

GIVE SCHOLARSHIPS TO LATE WAR SOLDIERS

F. F. Myrick, representing the educational service of the Y. M. C. A., will be in Tarboro Thursday to give away scholarships to ex-service men. These scholarships are good in schools for technical courses, correspondence courses, preparatory schools and to all courses of an industrial nature. The full cost of a correspondence course is covered by a scholarship and as much of one's expenses as $200 if he goes away to school.

Ex-service men who have not had the advantage of a high school fitting and were honorably discharged from the service may apply. Mr. Myrick will be found at the First National Bank. Apply early as these scholarships are limited.

RUMANIA IN WAVE OF SPECULATION

Object Is to Overcome High Cost of Living, Affecting Rich and Poor Alike.

Bucharest, June 29.—Rumania is being swept with a vast wave of speculation, the object of which is to overcome the high cost of living, which harasses the richest and poorest alike. The primary cause of the advanced price of necessities is found in the fact that all manufactured products have to be imported whereas there is sufficient amount of food grown in the country to support the population and this food has not risen in proportion of dress goods.

The cost of living in Rumania has been the occasion of many strikes, but as in every other country in Europe, people seem to find unexplained ways of buying fine clothes and keeping themselves well dressed.

The wealthy women of this country make bi-annual trips to Paris and return with their trunks filled with shoes and silk stockings and dresses of the latest fashion, which they bring into the country despite the prohibition against the importation of such articles, and also a 25 per cent customs duty which is paid with special permission is obtained to bring in goods. When such permission is not obtained, the goods are smuggled in automobiles over the frontiers.

Princess Elizabeth went to Paris last winter and bought herself three huge trunks full of new clothes, but arrived home heart-broken. While passing through Jugo-Slavia during the customs examination, the trunks were stolen.

Cabinet members are practically the only ones who have not had their salaries raised. They still receive the equivalent of about $200 a year. The former minister of the interior, Nicholas Lupu, was nearly bankrupted on one occasion when he was compelled to buy a silk hat to appear at a royal ceremony.

REPATRIATED HUNS ARRIVE IN HAMBURG

750 Men, Women and Children Arrive From German East-while Far East Colony.

Berlin, June 29.—Hamburg has just welcomed two shiploads of repatriated persons from the Far East brought here in two Japanese steamers.

From one of the ships Admiral Meyer-Waldeck, commander at Tsingtau, landed with 750 men, women and children from Germany's erstwhile Far Eastern colony who had been interned in Japan.

The other ship which came from Vladivostok carried 1,050 German, Austrian and some Turkish war prisoners from Siberian and Chinese points.

In a speech of welcome to the people from Tsingtau Admiral Taeger said although Germany had been defeated in the Far East seed had been sown there which would restore the honor of Germany's name.

Admiral Meyer-Waldeck, according to an agency report, replied that since the end of the war a strong revulsion of feeling in favor of Germany had set in in Japan where there was much indignation at the entente interpretation of the peace treaty. Japan had great faith in Germany's future, he added, and able diplomacy would doubtless succeed in re-establishing the former friendly relations between the two countries.

The Japanese general staff, continued Meyer-Waldeck, believed to the end that Germany would win.

Minister Koester welcomed other repatriated persons with words for the Fatherland.

FINANCIERS MEET JULY 23

Paris, June 29.—The date of the financial conference at Brussels has been fixed by the council of League of Nations as July 23.

CHINESE PROVINCE ASKS FOR TROOPS TO COMBAT THIEFS

Band of Robbers Made Up of Troops Who Have Deserted Army at Szechuen.

MAIL PACK TRAIN LOSES CARGO ON MAIN ROAD

Chengtu, China, June 29.—Depredations of robber bands along trade routes in Szechuen province have become so flagrant and widespread that urgent appeals for the use of troops to combat the menace have been sent to the Chinese provincial authorities by foreign firms operating in Szechuen. The bands of robbers are said to be made up to a large extent of groups of deserters from troops that have been stationed in Szechuen. The outlaws have become so bold that mail consignments, hitherto immune from them, have been seized.

One recent report that was brought to Chengtu was of the robbery of a pack train on the "big road," which is the main highway between Chungking and Chengtu. In this 40 bags of mail were opened and rifled by the outlaws and "the whole hillside was covered with stolen mail."

In another case a caravan had been held up and robbed by a band of bandits when a second stronger band of brigands appeared and compelled the return of the stolen goods. The leader of the smaller band was then shot. The chieftain who did this declared that he had guaranteed the safe passage of this particular caravan, having received a substantial consideration.

The activities of the bandits are felt as much by the individual as by the large commercial interests in the opinion of one Chengtu mission worker who said:

"It is a grievous hardship to send to America for a suit of clothes, pay for it at the ruinous prices, wait patiently six months for its arrival and finally hear that it has been appropriated by robbers within a few days of its destination."

HOLLOWAY-COBB.

This morning, Miss Annie Elizabeth Cobb became the wife of Mr. Geo. W. Holloway, of Petersburg, Va. The ceremony was performed at the Howard Memorial Presbyterian church at 11, the Rev. R. A. Lapsley, Jr., and Rev. G. W. H. Holloway, the father of the groom, officiating.

The bride wore a travelling suit of blue serge and carried a bouquet of bride's roses showered with sweet peas.

Miss Margaret Spear, of Winston-Salem, as maid of honor, was dressed in pink and white and carried a bouquet of pink and white sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Misses Maggie M. Robbins and Julia Edwards, of Rocky Mount, Misses Annie Elizabeth Johnson and Clarabell Fountain.

Mr. Allen Horne, of Winston-Salem, was best man. The groomsmen were Messrs. Guy Cherry and Carey Harrington, of Greenville, Messrs. Leon Jenkins, of Rocky Mount, and Redmond Mercer.

The bride went in on the arm of her brother and was given to Mr. Holloway at the altar.

Mias Cobb is a very popular young lady of this city, and we wish her a very happy voyage on the sea of matrimony.

The groom is a very popular young business man of Petersburg of sterling character, and has a host of friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Holloway left the church for the home of the bride, where a reception was given in honor of the bridal party, after which they left for northern points. Mr. and Mrs. Holloway will be at home in Petersburg on July 5.

HOUSE COLLAPSED; 4 KILLED

Buffalo, June 29.—Four unidentified men were killed and many injured today, when a lodging house in this city collapsed. Eighty men occupied rooms in the house last night, but it is unknown how many were in the building when the walls caved in.
