

ESTABLISHED 1824
 THE NEWSIEST AND BEST
 AFTERNOON
 PAPER

IN Eastern North Carolina

ASSOCIATED PRESS
 DISPATCHES
 STATE CAPITAL
 NEWS

All The Local News

Second Oldest Paper in North Carolina

$5.00 PER YEAR
 BY MAIL

EVERYBODY TAKES

The Southerner

LOCAL ITEMS
 AND SOCIAL NEWS

Mrs. Clarence W. Beasley, of Colerain, N. C., is visiting Mrs. J. G. Raby for a few days. Mrs. Beasley will be remembered here as Miss Lucille Williams.

Mr. J. A. Clark from Greenville visited his father Sunday.

Mr. S. C. Page and family of Stokes motored over to Tarboro Sunday to spend the day with Mrs. J. G. Whichard, of West Tarboro.

Mr. W. G. Nobles of Ayden visited his sister Mrs. Addie Hathaway on Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Thomas and Mrs. G. C. Cobb of Mildred were in town today.

Mr. A. C. Rawls and family of Fountain spent Sunday afternoon as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Whichard.

Mrs. J. B. Martin and little daughter Bettie Keel and Miss Alma Whichard motored over to Fountains on Wednesday afternoon and spent the evening. They reported a fine trip.

Miss Frances Gladstone is visiting Mrs. C. M. Parks for a few days.

The principal speaker at the Suffrage meeting on Tuesday night will be Miss Mary E. Pidgeon, field director of the association in Virginia and there will be five minute talks by Mrs. M. O. Winstead, of Rocky Mount, Mr. B. F. Shelton, Rev. Bertram E. Brown and Rev. D. E. Earnhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Cobb and children from Port Arthur, Texas, are visiting Mrs. L. E. McDuffie at Mildred for a few days.

Miss Mamie Bryant and Mrs. Lyon left for Lyons Falls to stay for several months.

Rev. S. W. Hale returned today from Camp Bragg, Fayetteville with the last contingent of Boy Scouts who have been camping for the past ten days.

Miss Katis Mildred Williamson of Hyde County is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. C. Cobb of Mildred for a few days.

The mosquitos were more bothersome last night than any time this year. Its well to get the mosquito bars out if we are to have many nights like last night.

Mr. G. P. McNeely left today for Goldsboro on business.

Miss Rena Clark returned yesterday from a months visit to Wrightsville Beach.

Miss McCargo has returned from a few days visit to Virginia Beach. The ladies who accompanied her are still at the beach.

Miss Mildred Futrell and Mr. F. S. Futrell of Scotland Neck motored home.

Miss Elsie Woolard of Scotland Neck was here yesterday to see her father, Mr. J. E. Woolard who was operated on at the Edgewood General Hospital yesterday.

Mr. B. F. Shelton was in town this morning on business.

Miss Agnes McLughlin left for Fayetteville yesterday to spend the summer with her mother.

Mrs. N. B. Dawson, of Conetoe, was in town this morning shopping.

Mr. J. O. Everett, of Plymouth, was in town this morning on business.

Mr. Daly Watson, of Wilson, was in town visiting his trade this morning.

Mr. R. B. Josey left yesterday for Scotland Neck to spend a few days.

Miss Lillian Pitt returned last evening from a visit to Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Cornelia P. Battle and daughter Miss Cornelia, have returned from a three months trip to Baltimore, New York, Philadelphia and Washington, D. C. Miss Cornelia Battle will return to New York City in October where she will remain all winter pursuing her studies.

Mr. A. M. Fairley, of Charlotte, is visiting his uncle, Dr. Don Williams, for a few days.

Capt. Paul Jones is gathering information necessary to the formation of a military company for Tarboro. He has been approached by a great many young men who want to join and, answering the popular demand, he is getting together specific data and will be ready to make definite announcement in a short time.

Miss Rosa Morris is expected back from Norfolk tonight after spending a couple of days there.

Farmers should be careful to see that their tobacco is fully ripe before it is primed for curing. Green and half green tobacco is not wanted on any market and will prove a total loss.

It is much better to have half a barn of ripe tobacco than have double the quantity that is green and unsaleable.

Have nothing but experienced help to prime your tobacco this year, no matter what it costs. It will be cheapest in the end.

Mrs. Stamps Howard has returned from a two weeks stay at Wrightsville Beach.

Miss Lucy Parker is in Charlotte on professional business.

Mr. A. Paul Kitchin and son Master Paul of Scotland Neck were in town yesterday attending the ball game.

Mark was certainly in the game yesterday striking out 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannie Hoffman, of Scotland Neck, were here to see the ball game yesterday.

Dr. H. I. Clark, of Scotland Neck was a visitor in town yesterday afternoon.

Dr. A. C. Liverman and Mr. W. H. White, of Scotland Neck were in town yesterday.

Mr. J. E. Woolard, of Scotland Neck, who underwent an operation for appendicitis Wednesday night, is reported getting along pretty well, although he had a set back last evening. A number of Scotland Neck people, who came to see the ball game, called to see him at the hospital.

Mrs. J. E. Woolard is attending her husband while he is at his worst following the operation for appendicitis.

Rev. O. C. Williamson is holding a protracted meeting at Oakland this week.

The library is being patronized more and more each day. It is open for the reading public and for circulation two hours in the morning and two hours in the afternoon.

Mr. David Andrews, who was operated upon for tonsils yesterday, had a hemorrhage last evening and suffered intensely, but is reported better today.

Mrs. Ellen Brown and daughter, Miss Nannie Brown, left today for Wrightsville Beach to spend some time.

Ladies from Bethel did some good work in Tarboro yesterday, collecting for a new Baptist church in their town. They gathered in no inconsiderable sum.

Some of the Boys Scouts, who had been camping for the past ten days at Camp Bragg, Fayetteville, returned last evening. Assistant Scoutmaster Tom Jacobs was in charge of the boys coming back, while Scoutmaster Hal and assistant Gus Bachman remained over until today to check up the things the boys used while staying in camp. They will return by car today.

Miss Estelle Jenkins' Party
 A number of young people, including Misses Ruth Stalling, Kate Spraggins, Ethel Davenport, Nannie Mack Brown motored to Pinetops last evening to attend the party of Miss Estelle Jenkins. They report having a fine time.

CONETOE NEWS ITEMS

Mrs. Harriett Brown and Miss Mary Brown have returned from Ayden where they have been visiting, Mrs. McFlohorn.

Miss Florence Cobb has returned home after a visit of several weeks at her sisters, in Rich Square.

Mrs. Will Stokes of Rich Square is visiting her mother, Mrs. Pat Cobb.

Mrs. Pat Cobb fell Sunday morning and fractured the bone in her left shoulder. We hope she will soon be out again.

Misses Frances Warren, Sue White Ellis, Glady Madry, Ethel Everett and Rebeca Thigpen are spending the week on a camping trip at Nobles Mill.

Mrs. Chester Clark is visiting Mrs. Joe Clark.

Shooting doves is the sport here.

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

Ex-President Taft proposed six reservations to the League of Nations covenant.

Two hundred and fifty thousand coal miners reported on strike in Great Britain.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAYS

James Cardinal Gibbons, primate of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, born in Baltimore, 86 years ago today.

Margaret Hlnington, a celebrated actress of the American stage, born at Bloomington, Ill., 39 years ago today.

Maj. Gen. Frederic Hugh Sykes, who served in the war as chief of the British Air Staff, born 44 years ago today.

Montague Glass, well known American playwright, born in Manchester, England, 43 years ago today.

Dr. Albert Shaw, noted New York

editor and publicist, born in Butler County, Ohio, 63 years ago today

WANTED—Live insurance man in your town to handle our monthly premium health, accident and life insurance policy. We have men making from $75 to $100 per week selling this policy. This policy is sold to white and colored both. Write and get district manager's place. Oldest company in the south, 33 years of successful business. Bonnett & Cook, State Managers, Bank of Columbia Bldg., Columbia, S. C. 20-4t

HAVE you seen the 1921 Hupmobile? Has more power and speed. Drop us a card for demonstration. Joyner-Davis Auto Co., Wilson, N. C.

FOR RENT—ONE LARGE FURNISHED room with private bath. Apply to W. D. Bryant. 3 times

WANTED—A live wire to sell Briscoe automobiles in your territory. J. H. Ham, distributor, Charlotte, N. C. 20-5tp

2 Cars No. 1 Timothy Hay
 1 Car White Feed Oats.
 1 Car Rets of Ice Cream Salt.
 1 Car Red Dog and Middlings.

PRICES RIGHT
 R. B. PETERS GROC. CO
 Store Phone 35 : Office 84

—CALL 103—
 For All Kinds of Plumbing.
 Yours To Serve
 R. E. L. PITT

CALL PHONE 272
 For All Kinds of Tailoring
 Cleaning and Dyeing
 STRICKLAND'S
 Steam Pressing Club.

Wouldn't You Like to Own Your Own Home?

This association stands ready to help you do this. You will be surprised to find how easily you can become a home-owner. Pay rent to yourself, be independent of landlords. Borrow what you need from this association—enjoy your own home and pay back the loan in easy installments. Come in and let us tell you how you can do this.

Tarboro Building & Loan Association
 Thos. B. Jacobs, Sec'y and Treas.

The Clark's Warehouse

Tarboro, North Carolina

Dear Mr. Farmer:-

Our MARKET has three modern steam plants with capacity enough to handle the offerings.

Our MARKET has buyers here representing all the BIG COMPANIES.

We have a modern and well lighted house located on the MAIN THOROUGHFARE in the Tobacco district, a COMPETENT AND EXPERIENCED sale and book force.

We will have Plenty of Help and good modern accommodations for the FARMERS that remain over at NIGHT.

Our MANAGER, Mr. J. W. Vincent, is a man that knows tobacco and the warehouse business, having had about EIGHTEEN YEARS' EXPERIENCE, coming here from GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA, the second largest tobacco market in the EAST. THEREFORE, there is no reason why we can not get you the HIGHEST DOLLAR for your TOBACCO.

Our Manager, Mr. J. W. Vincent, has just returned from the South Carolina market, which has just opened, and we are glad to report that while the offerings are a little better than last year, yet the price is from Three to Six Dollars per Hundred higher than last season. Therefore, we would recommend that you endeavor to get all the color possible, and handle your tobacco with all the care possible which will no doubt pay you for your trouble.

Bring us Your First Load and go Away Happy

The Clark's Warehouse

By J. W. VINCENT, Manager.