LOCAL BRIEFS.
Mrs. W. J. Thigpen leaves today for Raleigh, where she will meet her daughter, Miss Virginia, who has been visiting in the western part of the state for some time, and together they will return home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Della Hyman of Spartanburg, S. C., arrived yesterday to be a patient in the Edgecombe General hospital. Miss Spruill accompanied Mrs. Hyman here.

CLUB GIVES AUGUST DANCE
Without a doubt one of the most brilliant social events given in eastern North Carolina this season was the August dance held in the hall of the Edgecombe Club last night.

From ten o'clock until the wee sma hours there was absolutely nothing to mar the jubilant pleasure of the big crowd of dancers present.

There had been an exceptionally large number of invitations sent out as is the custom of the club, and guests from far and near participated, Wilmington, Raleigh, Greensboro, as well as all the nearby towns, being well represented.

The wonderful success of the dance was due in a large measure to the fact that it was well chaperoned and orderly, conducted from the first note of "O By Gosh" to the last plaintive strains of "Home Sweet Home."

A noted orchestra from Washington furnished the music.
