Democratic Nominees.

The Southerner stands four-square for the entire democratic ticket which the voters of the county will be asked to cast their ballot for on November second; therefore, the names of the nominees will be carried in these columns until the day of election so that all may familiarize themselves with the men who stand for the best form of government in America:

For president: James M. Cox.
For vice-president: Franklin D. Roosevelt.

For U. S. senator: Lee S. Overman.
For congress (second district): Claude Kitchin.

For governor: Cameron Morrison.
For lieutenant-gov.: W. B. Cooper.
For secretary of state: J. Bryan Grimes.

For state auditor: Baxter Durham.
For state treasurer: B. B. Lacy.
For superintendent of public instruction: E. C. Brooks.

For attorney general: James S. Manning.
For commissioner of agriculture: W. A. Graham.

For commissioner of labor and printing: M. L. Shipman.
For commissioner of insurance: Stacey W. Wade.

For corporation commissioner: A. J. Maxwell.
For associate justice of supreme court: W. A. Hoke, W. P. Stacy.

County Ticket.
For county commissioners: J. V. Cobb, W. H. Horne, D. B. Gaakill, H. G. Brown, W. M. Moore.

For board of education: M. G. Mann, R. H. Speight, H. L. Brake.
For register of deeds: H. S. Bunn.
For sheriff: J. W. Thomas.
For state senator: Paul Jones.
For representatives: K. T. Fountain.

Children are not allowed out in the streets of Norway after dark.

They aren't giving away any cider apples in the rural districts now.

Six months ago the consumers were standing in line to get sugar. Now the sugar speculators are standing in line at the banks to borrow money.

This campaign is nip and tuck, with a nipping frost due for some candidates that could be named, and many political workers tucking the goods away in their inside pockets.

Orators are not as popular as formerly, as what the voters demand is less silver tongues and more brass tacks.

Up to date it does not seem likely that anyone can get elected merely by putting his lithographed picture in every store window.

THE STORE WITH A MESSAGE.
Some merchants will tell you that their stock is just as good as anyone else has. Others are not satisfied to have just an average and ordinary service. They have a confident faith that they give something more than ordinary. A store of that kind is usually an advertising store.

Such a confidence is not mere bluff. When a man sets himself a standard of superiority, he is determined to live up to it. He is not satisfied to have just what everybody has. He sets out to study all the ins and outs of the market situation. He works hard to find goods and secure values that shall be better than ordinary.

When therefore you read an advertisement of some business in The Southerner you read the statement of the man who believes in his goods, and is determined to give something that is above the average value. A store of that kind is the best place to do business, because it will go the limit to make good its claim.

WORK-WORN

Hard working men and women, who put in long hours, day after day, without obtaining enough rest, sleep or recreation, often get into a run-down, weakened condition, and feel the need of a strengthening tonic. Ziron should be taken to help enrich the blood with iron, renew the appetite and tone up the general system. Thousands of people praise

ZIRON

The Scientific Iron Tonic

"My son, Aubrey Morris, has been taking Ziron and it greatly benefited him," writes Mr. L. P. Morris, a Laverne, Alabama, farmer. "He was troubled with tired and worn-out feeling. Now he can plow all day and never complain, so I can highly recommend Ziron to any one."
Ziron Iron Tonic tablets are sold by your druggist, on a guarantee that if the first bottle taken doesn't help you, your money will be refunded. Insist upon Ziron.

Rev. Father P. Gavan Duffy, S.D.C.

Will preach a Mission in Calvary Church, beginning next Sunday morning, October 24, at 11 o'clock, and continuing throughout the week, with service every night at 7.30 o'clock.

Those who desire private interviews with Father Duffy may obtain them in the mornings by arrangements beforehand.

He will gladly see all who may wish spiritual advice and prayer, or assistance in seeking relief through faith from physical suffering.

All are lovingly urged to take advantage of the opportunity to profit by the visit to us of this good and wise man, whose labors in His cause God has so signally blessed.

Dear Old Pete!

Winston-Salem, N.C.
Friday p.m.

Just wound up the one swellest day of my life! Since early this a.m. when I got an invitation to visit R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. factories, I've been in the midst of millions of Camel Cigarettes! Yes sir; right from the rooms where the choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos go into Camels' unrivatable blend, straight through to the loading platforms where cases holding 10,000 Camels each are packed into car after car for shipping to every corner and cross roads in the U.S.A!

Man—the happiest idea you or I ever had as to the size of this Reynolds enterprise, or the number of Camels manufactured daily, is simply power-stuff! Why—Pete, it seemed to me like a couple of those cigarette-making machines could keep half the nation smoking Camels steadily—BUT—there are hundreds of these machines turning out Camels at 27,000 an hour—EACH!

And, Pete, you wouldn't have to consult a guide book to know you were in the Camel factories! The atmosphere is just charged with that wonderful aroma you get when you open a deck of Camels! And, you know, old elephant, you've had a trunk full!

I stood by one of these machines, fascinated, and figured the delight each Camel would supply! And, how Camels' mellow, wild body would hit the right spot and how Camels' refreshing flavor would cheer up some smokers' jaded appetite! And, each Camel free from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor! And—

Pete, I'll have to lay off and light another Camel! Write you some more soon, old Camel-o-pard!

Yours Joyously
Shorty.
