And now they are having milk campaigns

The scientists and medical men are urging now that the people of the country are not drinking enough milk. And the reason why is simply because they can not get it. This is a good hint to Tarboro people to patronize the milk plant.

Every week means a fair, never before in the history of the state have there been so many county fairs, and if all reports be true, they are so far great successes. The exhibits show great improvements on every line of business and industry and agriculture

The Middle West say they can weather the strike. So can Edgecombe county, if it takes hog and hominy, sweet potatoes, sorghum and peas to ride the storm. Possums, coons and rabbits are plentiful and squirrels are in abundance.

Supt. Brooks has his ire up now and is threatening to scoop down upon little Ashe county like the Assyrian upon the fold. Brother Brooks had better take a care before he stirs up the hornets of the little mountain county.

Brother Brooks says that Ashe county must come forth with the taxes for the six months school and Mr. Bowie says he will not do it, and there you are. It looks like a lawsuit in the lost provinces.

It looks now as if some hand stronger than that of man can save the country from throes of a strike, if the plans of the strikers are carried out as agreed upon.

The Postmaster General says that the mails of the United States will not be stopped on account of the strike. And when railroad officials claim they can run their trains, as the country is full of unemployed labor of all kinds.

WHAT'S THE MATTER WITH COTTON?

Only a few days ago, cotton was selling for 20 cents per pound, and there it stayed for some time, and then with the space of a week it began to go down and hit 17 cents.

It is a strange thing, that when the government gives a large estimate of the cotton yield, the cotton world accepts it without question. This has always been so.

A few weeks ago the government report came out very strong for a low yield, the shortest in years, but no sooner was it published than a propaganda was started to discount this report because it gave a small yield and had a tendency to push prices up. And this propaganda is still going on and cotton has gone down.

It seems that mere rumors have more to do with the rise started me on the road to recovery."

His many friends throughout the district rejoiced to hear these words from him, and are glad to learn that he will soon be back at his post in congress soon.

The country needs Mr. Kitchin in the halls of congress, more probably than any other Southern congressman. The Republicans fear him, because he is bold, honest and right in his attacks upon them and their principles.

The Southerner wishes Mr. Kitchin a speedy return to his former health and earnestly trusts he can soon be at his desk in the halls of congress.

HOW ABOUT IT NOW?

During the last session of the legislature, while certain measures were before the Senate, there were several Senators from the east who fought with all their might these measures and one reason they give for their opposition was that the eastern counties were depressed and almost bankrupt, and unable to pay the extra taxes that would necessarily follow.

And these men were called "Down Eastern Calamity Howlers." This epithet came from the middle and far west too. But many months have now passed since last January and some of these westerners are changing their tune. They now realize, but too late, that their eastern brethren were telling the truth about financial conditions, not only as it applied to the east, but also to the west.

Unless I am badly mistaken some of our western friends are having troubles of their own at this time. Yavkin county commissioners refused to levy taxes for the schools and locked horns with a democratic board of education and a law suit followed.

And now State Supt. of Education Brooks is going strong after the officials of Ashe to force a levy for school purposes.

How about things now?

LOW RECORD FOR TAR RIVER.

Mr. E. V. Zoeller brought to The Southerner office the following interesting information:

"Tar river at Tarboro this morning was lowest of record. The surface of water is 10.78 feet, above ocean level. The average stage is about 4 feet higher."

Tarboro people should be thankful that with this low record we still have an abundance of water for town consumption.

O. HENRY LITERARY SOCIETY.

At the regular meeting of the O. Henry Literary Society on Thursday a very instructive and interesting program on Good Health was given. Each speaker showed thought and preparation, and easily held the attention of the society.

1. Current events, Bruce Williams
2. Health and beauty, Miss Doub.
3. The Bath, its possibilities, Lucy Knight.
4. Is your hair "a crown of glory" Evelyn Worsley.
5. "The windows of the soul," Seta Felton.
6. Care of the teeth, Eleanor Brown.
7. A healthy understanding, Lucy Claire Ivey.
8. Clothes and health, Vera Boykin.
9. Anecdotes, Eloise Moore.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express to our many friends thanks for their kindness extended to the family during the short illness of our father, Ruebin Walston, who at the age of 89, departed this life on October 11, 1921, leaving a widow and six children to mourn their loss. By his son, FRANK WALSTON.

Mr. Jesse L. Brake, Edgecombe's philosopher, was in town today. He states that at the Planters Oil Co. Co., up to September 25, 1921, 1100 bales of cotton had been ginned. While up to the same date last year only 100 bales had been ginned. He also says that in his immediate neighborhood 90 per cent of the cotton has been picked and in a few more days the fields will be cleared.

Mr. R. F. Barker of Asheville was in town yesterday.

Girls and Women Who Are Ailing

What This Woman Says is of Vital Importance to You
Ludlow, Ky.—"I had suffered every month for a long time with headache and backache, until recently I began taking Dr. Pierre's Favorite Prescription and I am astonished at the way it has helped me. I have no more headache or backache, and I have taken only a half dozen bottles. My daughter also has had about this same experience with the 'Favorite Prescription'."—Mrs. Herman Blacker, 19 Ash St.

A beautiful woman is always a well woman. Get this Prescription of Dr. Pierre's in liquid or tablet form from your druggist and see how quickly you will have sparkling eyes, a clear skin and vim, vigor, vitality; or send 10c to Dr. Pierre's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for a trial pkg. of tablets and write for free confidential medical advice.
